Media Information

As the Phoenix Suns welcome the beginning of their 43rd NBA season, the 2010-11 campaign is sure to provide many exciting moments. Entering the club's 19th season of basketball action at US Airways Center, the arena remains one of the most accessible in the league. In an effort to continue the Suns tradition of providing the best professional working environment, please note the following guidelines.

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All season and single-game credential holders should enter through the northeast entrance off 3rd Street and Jefferson. Media will call opens two and one-half hours prior to the game. All credentials are non-transferable, and any unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from the US Airways Center and confiscation of the pass. A photo identification will be required to pick up your credential.

Individual game credentials should be requested through the Suns' Basketball Communications department (phone: (602) 379-7960; fax: (602) 379-7908) a minimum of 36 hours prior to game time or by noon Friday for all Saturday, Sunday and Monday contests. Passes will not be issued on game day. Only requests confirmed via phone or e-mail by the Basketball Communications department will be honored.

Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, media room and both locker rooms. Both the Suns and visiting locker rooms will be open 90 minutes before tip-off until 45 minutes before the game and then again 10 minutes after the game. Coach Gentry's post-game press conference starts approximately 10 minutes after the game in the Pacific Room. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere. Absolutely NO autographs allowed during media access periods and NO cell phone use is allowed in the locker room.

Photo credentials will be issued in the same manner as other passes. Weekly papers and magazines on assignment may obtain passes by having the photo editor request a single-game credential. It is club and NBA policy NOT to allow freelance photographers access. ALL photographers must have an armband in order to gain floor access. The armbands can be obtained at the media will call check in.

Several communal telephones will be provided, but if you should need a designated phone for your own use, it should be ordered through Vicki Berryman at the US Airways Center (602) 379-2099. The Suns provide wireless service both courtside and in the working press room. A password to access the wireless service should be obtained from our game night staff in the working press room.

Parking is available at the Chase Field parking lot just south of 4th St. and Jackson.

It is our sincere hope that this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the National Basketball Association at the US Airways Center. Please call the Basketball Communications department if you need additional assistance.

Robert Sarver

Managing Partner

Robert Sarver, 48, who became the youngest person ever to found a national bank at the age of 23, grew up a Suns fan and attended games as a youth at Veterans Memorial Coliseum after receiving tickets as birthday gifts from Donald Diamond, one of the original owners along with Richard Bloch and Donald Pitt.

The self-made entrepreneur embarked on another challenge as the new majority owner of the Phoenix Suns in 2004-05 and the Suns enjoyed unparalleled success as the club tied a franchise record with an NBA-best 62 wins. Since taking ownership of the Suns, Phoenix has made three trips to the Western Conference Finals and has a cumulative regular season record of 332-160 (.675), third best in the NBA. He serves as a member of the NBA's Board of Governors, Labor Relations Committee, Advisory Finance Committee, and Audit and Compensation Committee. He is also the majority owner of the two-time WNBA Champion Phoenix Mercury (2007, 2009).

He is currently Chairman and CEO of Western Alliance Bancorporation, a $6 billion bankholding company doing business in Arizona, California, Nevada and Colorado. He is also the co-founder of Southwest Value Partners (SVP), a real estate and investment company, since 1990. He currently serves as a director of SkyWest Airlines and Phoenix-based Meritage Corporation.

A 1979 graduate of Sabino High School in Tucson and a 1982 graduate of the University of Arizona, Sarver earned his bachelor's degree in business administration, and became a certified public accountant in 1983. Sarver spent the first 35 years of his life in Arizona and has returned after living in San Diego for nine years. Sarver has demonstrated a commitment to community and philanthropic contributions, and has helped raise over $4 million for Phoenix Suns Charities since taking ownership of the club in 2004. Sarver and his wife Penny were also instrumental in helping to build the Children's Museum of Phoenix.

Sarver sits on the Board of Trustees of the Sarver Heart Center at the University of Arizona, which he helped build in memory of his late father, Jack, who was among the first to undergo heart bypass surgery. The center now houses over 40 physicians and researchers dedicated to fighting heart disease. He is also on the board of the Weil Foundation, which supports integrative medicine.

He and his wife Penny, a Kansas City, Mo. native, have three boys.

Jerry Colangelo

Phoenix Suns Chairman

Jerry Colangelo arrived in the Valley of the Sun in 1968 to take over the expansion Phoenix Suns NBA franchise as the youngest general manager in professional sports and guided the Suns into one of the most successful organizations in the NBA. He brought Major League Baseball to the Valley in 1998 and was chairman of the 2001 World Champion Arizona Diamondbacks. Colangelo was the key element in facilitating the move of the NHL's Winnipeg Jets to the Valley of the Sun to become the Phoenix Coyotes. Colangelo was also on the founding committee for the WNBA, and the Phoenix Mercury were one of the league's inaugural teams in 1997.

Colangelo's impact on the sports scene in Phoenix and the game of basketball has been so great, he was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in April 2004. He has been among The Sporting News most powerful people in sports for over the last decade and he was appointed as the first Managing Director of the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team program in April 2005, a position he remains in leading up to the 2012 Olympics in London. Colangelo assembled the coaches and players of the "Redeem Team," who returned USA Basketball to Olympic glory and claimed the gold medal at the 2008 games in Beijing, and also the 2010 squad that claimed the nation's first World Championship crown in 16 years.

The former Chairman of the NBA's Board of Governors, Colangelo has had a major influence on the growth of the NBA. With the Suns, his roles have included general manager, head coach, president, managing general partner, chief executive officer and now chairman. The 42-year tenure with one franchise is the longest in the NBA and he was inducted into the Suns' Ring of Honor, the club's highest honor, on Nov. 4, 2007. Colangelo spent two seasons with the Chicago Bulls working as marketing director, scout and assistant to the president before moving to the Valley to help start the expansion Suns.

Colangelo's commitment to the Valley transcends sports and he is well-known as one of the city's most active community leaders. In recognition of his efforts in the community, Phoenix mayor Phil Gordon proclaimed March 26, 2004, Jerry Colangelo Day in the city of Phoenix. The Valley of the Sun United Way also bestowed its highest honor, the Spirit of Caring award, to Colangelo on June 30, 2005, for his passion for improving lives in the community.

Colangelo enrolled at the University of Kansas, but transferred after his prospective teammate, Wilt Chamberlain, left the Jayhawks for a pro contract. Colangelo transferred to the University of Illinois, where he earned All-Big Ten honors, captained the Illini as a senior and was later inducted into the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame. He also played two years of baseball at Illinois.

Born November 20, 1939, Colangelo grew up in the "Hungry Hill" neighborhood of Chicago Heights. Colangelo and his wife, Joan, whom he met on a blind date while at the University of Illinois, have four children: Kathy Holcombe, Kristen Brubaker, Toronto Raptors President and General Manager Bryan Colangelo, and Mandie Adams; nine granddaughters and four grandsons.

Sam Garvin

Vice Chairman

Sam Garvin, who launched his own mail-in rebate and consumer promotions company at age 25, enters his seventh season as vice chairman of the Suns after purchasing interest in the club in June 2004.

The self-made entrepreneur founded Scottsdale-based Continental Promotion Group in 1989 and its business grew to over $1 billion in annual gross revenues and attracted over 500 blue-chip marketers worldwide. After a short stint at a promotion fulfillment firm, he started CPG from the trunk of his car, borrowing from credit cards for seed money. As chairman and chief executive officer from 1989-2005, he managed over 1,200 associates, and organized and executed consumer and trade promotions for Dell, Nestle, Henkel, Costco, BT (British Telecom), HP, Motorola, Disney and Eli Lilly on a global scale.

Garvin, who sold CPG in June 2005, took on additional responsibilities with the Suns shortly thereafter. A Suns fan since 1989, Garvin purchased single-game tickets in the upper bowl when the team played at Veterans Memorial Coliseum and has attended Suns games for the last 18 years. In July 2007, he was appointed an alternate NBA Governor to represent the organization.

Prior to CPG, Garvin served in the Ronald Reagan administration as a staff assistant on the Presidential Commission for the German-American Tri-Centennial. He then went to work for Heinz U.S.A. as a sales merchandiser where he learned the marketing of packaged goods from the ground up. In 1988, he graduated from Thunderbird, one of the top business schools in the country, with a masters of international management specializing in marketing. In 2003, he was awarded a doctor of international law degree, honoris causa, from Thunderbird.

In 1998, Garvin was recognized by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of Arizona's "Top 40 under 40" most influential business leaders. In 1999, he was recognized by then Arizona Governor Jane Hull with the "Governor's Spirit of Success" award. He was twice nominated for Ernst and Young's "Entrepreneur of the Year" award.

An acknowledged philanthropic leader, Garvin is currently on the board of trustees at Thunderbird (which is now known as Thunderbird, the School of Global Management), PCDS (Phoenix Country Day School), Whispering Hope Ranch and Phoenix Suns Charities. In addition to his duties with the Suns, Garvin also serves on several corporate boards including Innovative Brands, Expert Negotiator, LLC, and Direct Brands, LLC. He is the founder of Garvin Promotion Group, an international strategic promotion marketing firm headquartered in Scottsdale, and is also active in real estate and private equity investing through Garvin Holdings, LLC.

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Pa., Garvin completed his Bachelor of Arts degree with a dual major in political science and German studies at the University of Pittsburgh in three years. He resides in Paradise Valley with his wife Rita and three children.

Rick Welts

President and Chief Executive Officer

The 2010-11 season will mark Rick Welts' ninth season as president of the Phoenix Suns and his second as the club's chief executive officer after being named to the post on April 30, 2009. Welts, who joined the franchise in July 2002, supervises all business operations of the Suns and oversees the club's interests in the management of US Airways Center and the Phoenix Mercury (WNBA).

Welts previously served successful stints in professional basketball with the NBA league office and the Seattle SuperSonics. His association with the NBA office spanned from 1982-99 and he departed as the league's executive vice president, chief marketing officer and president of NBA Properties. Welts helped guide the revitalization of the league and its image through strong marketing initiated by the NBA and he is credited with the creation of the NBA All-Star Weekend concept in 1984, now a league highlight and a standard in both the National Hockey League and Major League Baseball.

He was also responsible for the 1992 Olympics "Dream Team" marketing program as the agent for USA Basketball. In 1998, Brandweek magazine named Welts "Marketer of the Year" for his role in creating and launching the WNBA. It was an honor he shared with former WNBA President Val Ackerman. In 2006, he was named the winner of the Splaver/McHugh "Tribute to Excellence" Award, given annually by the NBA Public Relations Directors' Association to a former member of the NBA public relations family who has demonstrated an outstanding level of performance and service during his or her career.

During his tenure at the NBA office Welts supervised league departments including corporate sponsorship and media sales, consumer products, media relations, community relations, team services, special events, creative services, and retail including the NBA Store and the "NBA City" restaurant. He was also responsible for the NBA's international business activities, from placing preseason games in foreign countries to opening the league's first international office in Australia to supervising six regional offices and 75 international employees in Asia, Europe, Australia, Mexico and Canada.

Recruited in 1982 by David Stern, then the NBA's executive vice president for business and legal affairs, Welts joined the NBA as director of national promotions for NBA Properties (NBAP). He established the corporate sponsorship department for the league and in 1983 was named vice president of marketing, NBAP. When Stern became NBA commissioner in February 1984, he promoted Welts to vice president, marketing and communications. Four years later he was promoted again to president of NBA Properties, responsible for virtually all the league's off-court revenue businesses and marketing activities. He added the title of NBA executive vice president and chief marketing officer in 1996.

Welts entered the world of the NBA in 1969 as a ball boy for the Seattle SuperSonics. He remained with the Sonics for 10 years in several different capacities, including director of public relations during Seattle's back-to-back trips to the NBA Finals and the club's lone NBA Championship in 1979.

Following his stint with the Sonics he moved in 1979 to Bob Walsh & Associates, one of the first sports marketing firms in the United States. As vice president, he was involved in creating the first sports subscription cable service (Sonics SuperChannel) as well as representing athletes in the NBA, MLB and NFL.

Welts left the NBA in June 1999 to become president of Fox Sports Enterprises, a new entity that managed Fox interests in facilities and sports teams including the Los Angeles Dodgers, Dodger Stadium, STAPLES Center, the Los Angeles Kings, Madison Square Garden, the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

In June 2001 along with two partners, Casey Wasserman and Gary Stevenson, Welts became a partner in a sports consulting firm, ONSPORT. Prior to that start-up venture he served as president for one year of "First In Line," a joint venture between USA Network's TicketMaster & SFX.

A native of Seattle, Welts attended the University of Washington.

Lon Babby

President of Basketball Operations

With almost 35 years as a practicing attorney with Washington, DC-based Williams & Connolly, LLP, Lon Babby brings a wealth of experience as an industry leader in sports and contract negotiations to his new role as the Suns' president of basketball operations. Identified as one of "Washington's Top Lawyers" for media and sports law by Washingtonian magazine, one of the "20 Most Influential Agents" in the nation by Sports Business Journal and one of the 100 most powerful in sports by The Sporting News, Babby joined one of the NBA's most storied franchises as only the fourth basketball president in the team's 43-year history on July 20, 2010.

One of the industry's most successful and well-regarded player agents, Babby brings his unique perspective of having represented players for 16 years to the management side. Babby entered player representation in 1994 when he was retained by current Suns forward Grant Hill. Together the pair devised a new model of player representation based on charging players on an hourly basis, rather than the traditional contract percentage. His principled approach became an alternative that appealed to the elite "good guy" athletes and his stable of clients grew to include some of the NBA's most respected sportsmen, including Boston's Ray Allen, San Antonio's Tim Duncan, Houston's Shane Battier and Hill, a three-time winner of the NBA Sportsmanship Award. Babby also represented marquee Major League Baseball players and the WNBA's Tamika Catchings.

Babby began his career in sports representing first the NFL's Washington Redskins (1977-80) and then MLB's Baltimore Orioles (1979-94). For the Orioles, he was intimately involved in the senior management of the club. He first served as club counsel and then general counsel, overseeing player contract negotiations, advertising and marketing contracts, labor issues and general business matters, including the construction of Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

A graduate of Lehigh University and Yale Law School and former editor of Yale Law Journal, Babby has served as an adjunct professor of law at George Washington University Law School. He began his career as a litigator and handled several high-profile cases including the defense of John Hinckley, Jr., who shot President Reagan. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and in 2007 was elected to the Greater Washington, DC Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.

The 59 year-old Babby was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., and grew up in Valley Stream, N.Y. He and wife, Ellen, met at summer camp at age 16 and have been married for 37 years. The couple has a son, Ken (30), who is a senior executive at The Washington Post Company, and a daughter, Heather (26), who is a marketing specialist at Saks Fifth Avenue in New York. Ken and his wife Jill have a 2-year old son, Josh.

Lance Blanks

General Manager

An experienced and successful talent evaluator, former player and veteran NBA executive Lance Blanks was named general manager of the Phoenix Suns on Aug. 5, 2010.

Blanks combines the high basketball IQ of a former player with a 10-year track record in the front offices of two of the league's most successful franchises over the last decade. The 43-year-old Blanks joins the Suns after spending the last five seasons with the Cleveland Cavaliers as vice president of basketball operations and assistant general manager, a tenure during which the Cavs owned an overall record of 272-138 (.663).

Prior to joining the Cavaliers in 2005, Blanks spent the previous five seasons with the San Antonio Spurs, originally joining the club in 2000 as a scout. Blanks was then promoted to the role of director of scouting in September 2002. During his time in the Alamo City, the Spurs won two NBA Championships and drafted Tony Parker and Luis Scola. He also served as the Spurs' television analyst for both the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons.

Selected in the first round of the 1990 NBA Draft (26th overall) by the Detroit Pistons, Blanks spent two seasons with the Pistons and one with the Minnesota Timberwolves, appearing in 142 career NBA games. He played one season in the CBA and three in Europe where he led teams in Hungary and Cyprus to league championships. A former Texas "Mr. Basketball" as a high school standout in 1985, Blanks attended the University of Texas and led the Longhorns to the Elite Eight in the 1990 NCAA Tournament. Blanks' 20.0-point collegiate scoring average ranks third-highest in Longhorn history.

Blanks is active in the NBA's Basketball Without Borders program, which has encouraged positive social change in education, health and wellness through basketball since its inception in 2003. He also serves on the steering committee for the Ron Brown Scholar Program, established in 1996 to provide academic scholarships, service opportunities and leadership experiences to young scholars of outstanding promise. It ranks as one of the nation's leading scholarship programs for youth.

Blanks has two daughters, Riley and Bryn. His father, Sid, played eight NFL seasons with Houston, Washington and New England; his cousin, Larvel, played eight seasons of MLB baseball.

Harvey Shank

Senior Executive Vice President

Harvey Shank enters his 40th season with the Suns and sixth as senior executive vice president. He is responsible for selling radio and television advertising packages, along with signage packages in the 18,422-seat US Airways Center.

Shank, who initially started with the Suns as assistant sales and promotions manager prior to the 1971-72 season, has held titles of senior vice president of corporate sales, vice president of marketing and director of marketing with the organization.

A native of Toronto, Canada, Shank is a 1968 graduate of Stanford University with a political science degree. He pitched four years in the California Angels organization.

An avid nature photographer, Shank had one of his pictures featured on the cover of a national publication, Nature Photographer magazine. In addition, he enjoys golf and sports a four-handicap.

Shank was married in 1988 to his wife, Maryse. His son, Jon, played baseball at Stanford. Shank is an advisor on the Fresh Start Men's Board and active in Living Streams Christian Church.

Jim Pitman

Executive Vice President, Finance and Administration

Jim Pitman oversees all accounting, finance, information systems, and insurance aspects of the organization and is in his 12th season as executive vice president of finance and administration. The Suns' NBA finance chief also assists with salary cap and player contract management.

Pitman also oversees all financial aspects of the US Airways Center and Phoenix Mercury (WNBA). Pitman serves as treasurer of Phoenix Suns Charities and is a board member of the US Airways Center Education Foundation and the Valley of the Sun YMCA. He also serves on the Finance Committee for the Valley of the Sun United Way.

Coming to the Suns in 1992 as assistant controller, he moved up to corporate controller and vice president of finance before his most recent promotion. Prior to the Suns, he spent nearly five years in the audit division of the Phoenix office of Arthur Andersen with client responsibility in the professional sports, hospitality, and wholesale distribution industries.

A native of Rio, Ill., Pitman is a 1987 graduate of the University of Illinois where he earned a degree in accountancy.

Pitman and his wife Linda live in Phoenix. He has two children, Amy (17) and Kyle (15), and lists basketball, softball and golf as his favorite out-of-office activities.

Lynn Agnello

Senior Vice President, Marketing Partnerships

Lynn Agnello enters her 10th season as the Senior Vice President of Marketing Partnerships for the Phoenix Suns and Phoenix Mercury (WNBA). Agnello oversees all business operations of the Marketing Partnerships department, including sales, activation, and creative services for corporate partners. In addition, Agnello also oversees Suite Sales and Services, which is a new addition to her management responsibilities this year. Agnello's main focus is creating integrated marketing opportunities, customized for each client, that will differentiate and amplify the partner's brand and support their business initiatives. She has built an unprecedented discipline of full-service sales and activation, generating revenue through partnership packages which include broadcasts in HD, digital media, radio, cable, print, website, signage, and promotional elements. Since joining the Suns organization in 2001, she has led the franchise to a double-digit increase in sponsor revenue and now collaborates with over 100 sponsors.

Agnello currently serves on the Board of Directors for Fresh Start Women's Foundation, Phoenix Suns Charities, and the Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce.

Agnello graduated from Indiana University where she earned a degree in business and telecommunications. In 1989, Agnello moved to Phoenix from Miami, Fla., where she specialized in broadcast media and sales. Prior to her position with the Suns, she spent 10 years as the National Sales Manager for various premiere radio stations and cable networks.

Agnello was born and raised in Goshen, Ind. In her spare time, she enjoys spending time with friends and her 11-year-old son, Dominick.

Al McCoy

Senior Vice President, Broadcasting
KTAR 620 AM Radio Play-by-Play

Al McCoy has been called the dean of NBA play-by-play announcers and has been "The Voice of the Suns" for 38 memorable years, nearly the length of the franchise's existence.

McCoy first hit the air during a preseason game on September 27, 1972, and has been synonymous with Suns basketball ever since. From "Shazam" to "Zing Go the Strings" to "Heartbreak Hotel," McCoy has cultivated an unparalleled style.

McCoy will forever be remembered for his call in the 1976 Suns-Celtics NBA Finals at Boston Garden when he had to fling an inebriated fan off his lap as he was describing "The Shot Heard 'Round The World" by Garfield Heard that sent the game into the third of three overtimes.

The 2010-11 season will mark his 39th season and he will call play-by-play action on KTAR Radio and the Suns radio network. McCoy's term with the Suns is the longest consecutive run with one team among current NBA broadcasters. His many contributions to the sport were recognized when he received the 18th Annual Curt Gowdy Media Award from the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame during Enshrinement Weekend in September 2007 in Springfield, Mass. The Suns honored him with the Al McCoy Media Center, dedicated in October 2007.

In 2010, Phoenix Magazine named McCoy the best play-by-play announcer in their annual "Best of the Valley" issue for the 12th consecutive year. He's the only broadcaster to win the award since it debuted in 1999. McCoy was honored with a Silver Circle Award from the Arizona chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences and a Lifetime Achievement Award from the House of Broadcasting (a radio and television museum). He also became the first play-by-play announcer to be inducted into the Arizona Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame on Oct. 19, 2004.

McCoy's broadcasting career began in 1951 at KJFJ Radio in Webster City, Iowa when he was a freshman at Drake University. In 1958, he arrived in Arizona to do play-by-play for the Triple-A Phoenix Giants baseball club. He has also covered Phoenix Roadrunners hockey, Arizona State football and basketball and filled in as a backup for the Arizona Diamondbacks.

A native of Williams, Iowa, a tiny farming community, McCoy was a member of his high school basketball team and was influenced by legendary broadcasters Harry Caray, Bert Wilson and Jack Brickhouse. He received his degree in drama-speech from Drake University and performed graduate work at the University of Iowa. In 1994, McCoy received Drake's Alumni Achievement Award.

He and wife Georgia, a Valley artist, have three sons: Mike, and twins Jay and Jerry. A culinary critic, he is the club's expert on gourmet restaurants around the league. McCoy is an accomplished jazz pianist.

Jason Rowley

Senior Vice President and General Counsel

Jason Rowley begins his fourth season with the Suns as the chief legal officer for the NBA club as well as the organization's other entities, the Phoenix Mercury and US Airways Center. As General Counsel, Rowley is responsible for all legal matters pertaining to the organization's basketball, business and arena operations.

Rowley began his legal career in 2001 with the law firm of Snell & Wilmer in Phoenix. At Snell, his practice included private and public mergers and acquisitions, complex real estate transactions, securities regulation, entity formation, commercial contracts, and general business law.

Prior to joining the Suns, Rowley served for two years as corporate counsel for the Van Tuyl Group, the nation's largest privately held automotive retailer. While at Van Tuyl, his practice focused on real estate and dealership acquisitions and development, as well as general corporate and contract law.

Rowley is involved in a number of civic organizations. He is a Thunderbird, the non-profit group that hosts the FBR Open, serves on the Board of Directors for Special Olympics Arizona, and is actively involved in Phoenix Suns Charities.

Rowley received his bachelor's degree and J.D. from the University of Arizona, and prior to entering law school served in the US Navy. He and his wife Kristi have two beautiful little girls, Abigail (4) and Lucille (1).

Jay Parry

Senior Vice President, Brand and Business Development

After seven seasons as president and chief operating officer of the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury, Jay Parry joins the Suns as Senior Vice President of Brand and Business Development. She oversees all day-to-day operations of the Ticket Sales, Premium Seats, Suns Digital Media, CRM and Database Marketing, Public Relations, Marketing and Community Relations departments.

In seven years at the helm of the Mercury, Parry helped lead the organization to two WNBA championships (2007, 2009) and to double-digit business growth in the areas of corporate partnerships and acquiring new fans. Perhaps most notably, Parry was a driving force behind the Mercury's innovative alliance with Tempe-based LifeLock, an industry leader in identity theft protection, that resulted in the first-ever corporate-branded jersey in WNBA or NBA history. The partnership was originally announced in June 2009 and then expanded to include the club's practice jerseys in March 2010, blazing the trail for other major league sports teams to sell sponsorships on jerseys.

Prior to joining the Mercury, Parry served as executive vice president of Bank of America's 10-state central region.

A native of Del Mar, California, Parry earned her Bachelor's Degree in Finance from the University of Colorado in Boulder. She currently serves on the boards of Arizona Women's Education and Employment (AWEE), Harris Private Bank, Phoenix Thunderbird Charities and Phoenix Suns Charities.

Julie Fie

Vice President, Basketball Communications

Julie Fie, a senior member of the NBA's public relations community, serves as the club's primary liaison between the media and the team's players and management for all basketball communications. Fie and her staff are responsible for media interviews and requests and the dissemination of information locally, nationally and internationally. This includes news conferences, press releases, game night press accommodations and credentialing, the production of media guides, game notes, and statistics.

A former member of the NBA Public Relations Advisory Board, Fie joined the Suns in 1992. In 2007, she and her staff won the inaugural Professional Basketball Writers Association Media Relations Staff of the Year award, now known as the Brian McIntyre Award. Fie, now in her 19th season with the Suns, was promoted to her current position in July 1998.

Originally joining the NBA with the Kansas City Kings as assistant public relations director, Fie was elevated to director the following season and remained with the club as the franchise relocated to Sacramento. She remained there until joining the Suns.

A communications graduate from Iowa State University, Fie spent two years as an undergraduate with the ISU sports information department. She is a native of Jefferson, Iowa.

Jeramie McPeek

Vice President, Digital

Jeramie McPeek enters his 19th season with the Suns and leads the organization's digital and social media efforts, including eight in-house websites, the teams' channels on Facebook and Twitter, as well as the club's print publications.

Under his guidance, Suns.com has twice been named the top team site in the league by The Sports Business Journal (2002, 2004) and received the Website of the Year Award from the NBA in 2007. McPeek was also recognized with two Rocky Mountain Emmy Awards in 2008 for his direction of the Suns' official fan community (PlanetOrange.net) and a virtual tour of the team's clubhouse (SunsLockerRoom.com).

In addition to his position with the Suns, McPeek is the editor at large for the NBA's official magazine, HOOP.

A Phoenix native, McPeek graduated from Arizona State University in 1995 with a degree in journalism. He and his wife, Amy, have two children, Sam and Abby.

Our furry friend visited schools and hospitals, supported numerous charities and visited local business, made cameos in many commercials, including a hilarious ESPN commercial that was aired nationwide. The Gorilla traveled to Mexico, Canada, California, Texas, and to cities across the state of Arizona. And there is no doubt this year will be even better!

After moving from the studio to the broadcast booth in 2003, Leander begins his eighth season as the Suns' play-by-play broadcaster for all Suns games televised on My 45 and is a pre-game host for all FSN Arizona telecasts.

From 2000-03, he held the same responsibilities for the Suns pre-game, halftime and post-game shows on Cox 9. Alvin Gentry

Head Coach

A 50-win season, a return to the playoffs and homecourt advantage with a squad few picked to contend for a postseason spot, and two NBA Coach of the Month awards: not bad for Alvin Gentry's first full season as head coach of the Phoenix Suns.

A coaching veteran of more than 30 years in the professional and collegiate ranks, Alvin Gentry was named the 14th head coach in Suns history on May 9, 2009, after originally being elevated to the role of interim head coach on Feb. 16, 2009. In just 113 games under his leadership, Gentry's Suns have compiled a 72-41 (.637) record, giving him the third-highest win percentage among coaches in franchise history (Paul Westphal, Mike D'Antoni).

In his first full season as the Suns' head man in 2009-10, Gentry was a two-time NBA Western Conference Coach of the Month winner for November 2009 and March 2010. He guided the team to 54 wins, his career-high as a coach, and earned his second career playoff berth as a head coach, first since 1998-99 as leader of the Detroit Pistons. Gentry coached the Suns to 10 postseason victories in 2010, tied for the second-most in a single postseason in franchise history, and became just the fifth coach in franchise history to lead his team to a Western Conference Finals berth in his first full season.

In addition to winning, Suns basketball under Gentry has featured two signature qualities: a high-scoring brand of basketball that has made the team the league's most exciting to watch and a dominant homecourt advantage.

For the second-straight season and for the fifth time in six seasons that Gentry has been with the organization, the Suns led the NBA in scoring in 2009-10. During his tenure as head coach, Phoenix has averaged 112.3 points, even more than the trendsetting Suns posted from 2004-05 to 2007-08 (109.8).

Since taking over with 31 games remaining in 2008-09, Gentry has compiled the seventh-best home record of any NBA head coach in that span (46-12), a mark that includes an impressive .838 win percentage against the ultra-competitive Western Conference (31-6).

Named the club's interim head coach after the 2009 All-Star break, Gentry's 31-game tenure with the Suns in 2008-09 saw him lead the club to a 46-36 (.561) finish, the second-most victories for a non-playoff team in the 25-year history of the NBA's 16-team playoff format, as he compiled the highest winning percentage of any interim coach in the NBA (.561). He returned the Suns to the franchise's high-scoring roots as Phoenix averaged an astounding 117.7 points following his promotion and raised its overall scoring average five full points to 109.4 for the season, best in the NBA. The Suns opened Gentry's tenure with a bang: a 40-point victory, the largest following a coaching change in NBA history, and three-straight 140-point efforts, the first time the NBA had seen such prolific scoring in three consecutive games in nearly two decades.

Originally hired by the Suns as an assistant coach on June 1, 2004, Gentry served in that position the previous four-plus seasons before earning the midseason promotion in 2008-09. In 21 seasons in the NBA, Gentry has worked alongside some of the game's most respected coaches, including Larry Brown, Kevin Loughery, Doug Collins and Mike D'Antoni, who have combined for more than 2,000 NBA victories.

Gentry is at the helm of his fourth NBA team after stints with the Los Angeles Clippers (2000-03), Detroit Pistons (1997-2000) and Miami Heat (1995). Gentry took over for Collins in Detroit on Feb. 2, 1998, and the next season his 1998-99 squad earned a playoff berth. In 2001-02, his second season with the Clippers, he guided Los Angeles to an improbable 39-43 (.476) record, the team's highest win total in nearly 10 seasons, a season after leading the club to a 16-win improvement in 2000-01, his rookie campaign with the club.

Gentry received his first head coaching opportunity with the Miami Heat, taking over for Loughery on Feb. 14, 1995, after serving as an assistant with the Heat from 1991-95. Miami compiled a 15-21 (.417) record under his guidance.

The 55-year-old Gentry, who assisted the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team in training camp as they prepared for the 2006 FIBA Men's World Championships in Japan, made his entrance into the NBA as an assistant to Brown with the San Antonio Spurs in 1988-89. That came the season after serving under Brown with the 1988 NCAA Champion Kansas Jayhawks men's basketball team. Gentry subsequently moved to the Clippers for one season as an assistant under Mike Schuler.

He played point guard at Appalachian State for coaching legends Press Maravich, the father of "Pistol Pete," and former Georgia Tech Head Coach Bobby Cremins. Gentry graduated from Appalachian State with a degree in management in 1977.

After graduation, his cousin, former NBA All-Star David "Skywalker" Thompson, got him a tryout with the Denver Nuggets and although he didn't make the cut, he made an impression on Brown, who later hired him.

Gentry began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado during the 1977-78 season. After one year working in private business, he returned to the bench when he received his first full-time collegiate assistant coaching job at Baylor in 1980. Gentry then returned to Colorado as an assistant coach from 1981-85 before joining Brown at Kansas.

Gentry and his wife Suzanne have two children, Ryan Marcus and Matthew Jackson. He also has one daughter, Alexis.

He finished his playing days with regular season career averages of 13.2 points and 6.3 rebounds in 963 games and postseason averages of 8.9 points and 5.4 rebounds in 124 playoff games.

Originally selected with the 14th overall pick by the Suns in the 1988 NBA Draft, Majerle made seven playoff appearances as a player with Phoenix (1988-95). Majerle quickly became a permanent fan favorite while playing eight seasons in Phoenix (1988-95, 2001–02). The 6-6 swingman, who was a member of the Suns' 1993 Western Conference Championship squad, played one season in Cleveland and five in Miami under Hall of Fame Coach Pat Riley following his departure from Phoenix via trade on Oct. 7, 1995. The 45-year-old concluded his career as a Sun following the 2001-02 season in Phoenix where he sank his then-franchise-record 800th and final career three-pointer with 25.3 seconds remaining in the season finale on April 17, 2002, versus Dallas. Suns guard Steve Nash surpassed that mark in 2009-10.

"Thunder Dan" was inducted into the Suns Ring of Honor, the team's highest honor, on March 9, 2003. At the ceremony, Suns Chairman Jerry Colangelo announced the creation of the Dan Majerle Hustle Award, explaining, "When you think of Dan Majerle, you think of a guy who gave maximum effort in every game, every practice…in everything he did. It is this work ethic that inspired the creation of the award." It is given annually to a Suns player exemplifying those attributes and was won most recently in 2010 by Jared Dudley.

Majerle was a three-time All-Star (1992, 1993, 1995) who became the first reserve in NBA history to be voted an All-Star starter in 1995 when the game was held in Phoenix. The 14-year NBA veteran ranks 18th in NBA history with 1,360 three-pointers made and holds the NBA Finals record with 17 three-pointers made in a series against Chicago in 1993.

Originally Phoenix's first-round pick (fourth overall) in the 1974 NBA Draft, Shumate was named NBA All-Rookie First Team in 1975-76 after sitting out his rookie season with a blood clot injury. During his seven-year NBA career, he averaged 12.3 points and 7.5 rebounds in 318 games with the Suns, Buffalo, Detroit, Houston, San Antonio and Seattle.

At the conclusion of his playing career in 1981, Shumate coached 17 consecutive years at the college and pro level at Notre Dame (assistant coach, 1981-83, 1986-88), Grand Canyon College (now Grand Canyon State, head coach, 1983-86), Southern Methodist University (head coach, 1988-94) and the NBA's Toronto Raptors (assistant coach, 1995-98).

Shumate rejoined the Suns organization as a community relations representative in 1998 and later as a scout for the Suns beginning in 2000, a role he returns to in 2010. He accepted the WNBA Phoenix Mercury's head coaching position in 2003 for a lone season before returning to the Suns scouting staff full-time in 2004 where he served until being named an assistant coach. Celebrating 43 Years of Suns Basketball ...

The Phoenix Suns have long been regarded as one of the most successful NBA franchises on and off the court. Since entering the league in 1968, the Suns own a .561 (1914-1498) winning percentage, the fourth-best mark all-time in the NBA (entering 2010-11). That record trails only the Los Angeles Lakers (.619, 3027-1866), San Antonio Spurs (.600, 1653-1103) and Boston Celtics (.594, 2972-2031) and includes appearances in the postseason in 29 of the team's 42 seasons, and 19 of the past 22 seasons (since 1988-89). Phoenix has reached the NBA Finals twice (1976 and 1993).

On June 30, 2004, Robert Sarver, a banking and real estate executive, purchased the club from Jerry Colangelo after Colangelo set into motion a plan to ensure the team's legacy by seeking out a new owner who shared his vision and commitment to both the game of basketball and community. In the six seasons since Sarver, an Arizona native, took ownership of the Suns, Phoenix has won 50 or more games five times and enjoyed the winningest four-year period in the franchise's proud history from 2004-08 (232 victories). The span includes two 60-plus win seasons (franchise-record tying 62 in 2004-05 and 61 in 2006-07) and three Pacific Division titles. Over the last six seasons, the Suns have complied a 332-160 (.675) regular season record, which trails only the Dallas Mavericks (341-151, .693) and San Antonio Spurs (340-152, .691) for the NBA's best record in that stretch.

Dick Van Arsdale scores the first basket in Suns history on a feed from Dick Snyder as they defeated Seattle 116-107 in the first regular season game at the Coliseum.

The Beginning Of A Franchise...

On January 22, 1968, the NBA Board of Governors awarded a franchise to Phoenix. The new team's leadership came from owners Richard Bloch of Los Angeles along with Donald Pitt and Donald Diamond of Tucson. They brought together a group of investors that included entertainers Henry Mancini, Tony Curtis, Ed Ames, Andy Williams and Bobby Gentry.

Jerry Colangelo, former Illinois basketball star and member of the Chicago Bulls' organization, was selected as the club's first general manager at age 28. Colangelo has been with the club since its inception. One of Colangelo's first moves was naming Johnny "Red" Kerr as the franchise's first head coach. The name "Suns" was chosen through a contest (28,000 entries submitted). Since several entries were marked "Suns," a drawing was held and Selinda King of Phoenix was selected as the person who officially named the new franchise.

In the May 6, 1968 Expansion Draft, forward Dick Van Arsdale, who was left unprotected by the New York Knicks, became "The Original Sun." Van Arsdale scored 12,060 points as a Sun, and would later have his jersey (5) retired.

The Suns played their first game October 18, 1968, and defeated Seattle, 116-107, before 7,112 fans at Veterans Memorial Coliseum. However, Phoenix finished its first season at 16-66. In a coin flip between the Eastern and Western Conference teams with the poorest records (Milwaukee and Phoenix), the Suns called "heads" as the coin came up "tails." Milwaukee claimed Lew Alcindor, later known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, and captured the NBA title two years later.

Success, however, came more quickly than skeptics first thought when the Suns won a second coin flip and the rights to ABA star Connie Hawkins.

The Suns made the playoffs in their second season, battling the L.A. Lakers to the seven-game limit in the conference semifinals. With the emergence of eventual four-time All-Star and NBA Hall of Famer Hawkins, and the club's impressive playoff performance, the Suns had arrived on the NBA map.

The Greatest Game Ever Played...

Things brightened when the 1975-76 club, headed by coach John MacLeod, Rookie of the Year Alvan Adams and Paul Westphal, parlayed a 42-40 record and wild card playoff berth into the Western Conference title and a trip to the NBA Finals against Boston. Game Five of that series has been called "the greatest game ever played," as Boston won 128-126 in a triple-overtime thriller. The Celtics eventually captured the title, 4-2, but the "Sunderella" Suns demonstrated that they had come a long way in just eight seasons.

Phoenix Rising...

On October 14, 1987, Colangelo led a group of Phoenix-area investors that purchased the team for $44.5 million. He was then named president and chief executive officer.

Cotton Fitzsimmons began his second stint with the Suns head coach prior to the 1988-89 season and engineered one of the biggest turnarounds in NBA history. On February 25, 1988, the Suns traded All-Star Larry Nance to Cleveland with Mike Sanders and a first-round pick for Kevin Johnson, Mark West, Tyrone Corbin and first- and second-round picks. On July 5, 1988, the Suns made NBA history by signing the league's first unrestricted free agent, Tom Chambers.

A revamped 1988-89 Suns squad had just one holdover player, Jeff Hornacek, remaining from two seasons before. The Suns finished 55-27 and were the NBA's top scoring team. For the first time in NBA history, a team won four postseason awards: Coach of the Year (Fitzsimmons), Most Improved Player (KJ), Sixth Man (Eddie Johnson) and Executive of the Year (Colangelo).

Danny Ainge and Michael Jordan faced off in the 1993 NBA Finals. Chicago defeated the Suns 4-2 in an exciting series.

During 1988-89, Colangelo moved ahead with plans for a new downtown arena that the Suns could call home. In a unique partnership with the city of Phoenix, the $89 million America West Arena (later renamed US Airways Center) was born. Construction of the arena began during the summer of 1990. The arena then underwent a $70 million expansion and improvement project that was completed in 2004 and remains a state-of-the-art facility.

A New Era Of Basketball...

Celebrating their 25th year in the NBA, the Suns rocked the basketball world with a blockbuster trade. On June 17, 1992, the team acquired Charles Barkley from Philadelphia for Hornacek, Tim Perry, and Andrew Lang. On November 7, 1992, the Suns opened their new home, America West Arena (now US Airways Center), with a new head coach in Westphal, a new logo, and new uniforms.

The 1992-93 club finished the season with a club-record and NBA-best 62-20 record and Barkley earned the NBA's MVP award. The Suns made NBA playoff history by coming back to beat the Lakers in the opening round after losing the first two at home. They defeated San Antonio in six games, Seattle in seven, and returned to the Finals for the first time since 1976. After losing the first two at home to the defending World Champion Chicago Bulls, the Suns went to the Windy City and won two of three, including a 129-121 triple-overtime affair in Game 3. John Paxson gave the Bulls their third-straight NBA title after sinking a three-pointer with 3.9 seconds left in Game 6 at Phoenix.

The 1995 All-Star Game was held at AWA, as Barkley and Majerle were starters on the winning West squad coached by Westphal. After the break, the team won its second Pacific Division title in three seasons and earned the No. 2 seed in the playoffs behind San Antonio. The Suns swept Portland in the first round and faced Houston for the second-straight season in the semifinals. The Suns took a 3-1 series lead, but the Rockets won three-straight and went on to win their second-straight NBA title.

...Return of the Run-and-Gun

For the second time in the team's history, the offseason addition of an All-Star turned into an NBA MVP and a franchise-record tying 62 single-season victories in 2004-05. Point guard Steve Nash, originally drafted by the franchise in 1996, agreed to return to the Suns in the summer of 2004 and in his first season in Phoenix led the club to a 33-game turnaround from the previous season, the first of two consecutive Western Conference Finals appearances and won the first of back-to-back league MVP honors. That signing keyed a renaissance of high-scoring basketball, not just in Phoenix but around the NBA, and has earned the Suns scoring titles in five of the last six seasons.

Season Review 68-69

16-66

On January 22, 1968, the NBA Board of Governors granted a franchise to the city of Phoenix. On April 25, 1968, the name "SUNS" was selected in a contest sponsored by The Arizona Republic. The winning entry was submitted by Mrs. Selinda King of Phoenix.

The Suns began building their team by naming Johnny "Red" Kerr as head coach. Kerr, who had coached the Chicago Bulls for the previous two years, was the NBA's Coach of the Year in 1967. Next was the 1968 NBA College Draft. Phoenix's first-ever selection was Gary Gregor, a 6-7 forward from South Carolina. The Suns continued to build the young squad by making Dick Van Arsdale the first player taken in the expansion draft. Van Arsdale had played the previous three years with New York. Phoenix also selected guard Gail Goodrich, a third-year pro, from the Los Angeles Lakers.

On October 18, the Suns opened their rookie season with a 116-107 victory over Seattle as 7,112 fans filled Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Goodrich, now in the NBA Hall of Fame, led the team with 27 points, 10 assists and nine rebounds while Van Arsdale pitched in 21 points. The Suns went on to finish the month with a 4-3 mark. But that was the last time they would be above .500 as they suffered through the rest of their first season to finish with a 16-66 record.

Goodrich and Van Arsdale led the Suns averaging 23.8 and 21.0 points, respectively. Goodrich finished sixth in the league in scoring and third as a guard behind Baltimore's Earl Monroe and Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson. Both players also appeared in the 1969 NBA All-Star game in Baltimore.

Season Review 69-70

39-43

With the addition of veterans Paul Silas and Connie Hawkins, the young Suns enjoyed a 23-game turnaround and their first-ever trip to the NBA playoffs. Silas, obtained in a trade with Atlanta for Gary Gregor, gave the team additional inside strength as he averaged nearly 12 rebounds. Following a legendary two-year stint in the ABA and one year with the world-famous Harlem Globetrotters, Hawkins provided amazing offensive talents.

On January 2, with the Suns at 15-23, Head Coach Johnny Kerr resigned just five hours prior to that night's game against San Diego. General Manager Jerry Colangelo took over as head coach and led the Suns to a 24-20 mark over the rest of the regular season and a bid to the NBA Playoffs.

The Suns drew the mighty L.A. Lakers in the first round and dropped the opening game in Los Angeles, 112-128. But the Suns showed character as they picked up the next three games behind superb play from Silas, Hawkins and Gail Goodrich. However, the likes of Wilt Chamberlain, Jerry West and Elgin Baylor were too much for the Suns as the Lakers clinched the series in seven games.

Dick Van Arsdale made his second appearance in the All-Star Game along with the team's scoring leader Hawkins. The Hawk also earned All-NBA First Team honors.

Season Review 70-71

48-34

Dick Van Arsdale returned for his third season with Phoenix as the only original Sun remaining. Offseason trades brought veterans Mel Counts and Clem Haskins to the team. In spite of the success the club enjoyed at the tail-end of the 1969-70 season, General Manager Jerry Colangelo felt the Suns needed a "career" coach. He set out to find a teacher and a motivator who could mold the Suns' young players. On June 5, 1970, Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons joined the Suns as head coach.

Fitzsimmons had led the Kansas State Wildcats to the Big Eight title the previous year, and brought a sense of passion and "Purple Pride" to the Valley. The club responded to his enthusiasm.

Phoenix posted its best finish with a 48-34 record, fourth best in the league. That included the team's best month ever with an 11-4 mark in January. However, due to the Suns' place in the tough Midwest Division, the team failed to make the playoffs.

Paul Silas led the team in rebounding for the second-straight season pulling down a franchise-best 12.5 per game including a team record 27 vs. Cincinnati on January 18. Van Arsdale led the club in scoring with a 21.9 average while Connie Hawkins netted 20.9 points per game. Van Arsdale and Hawkins were again named NBA All-Stars.

Season Review 71-72

49-33

Cotton Fitzsimmons began his second year at the helm with great anticipation. The Suns drafted Dennis "Moe" Layton, a 6-1 point guard from USC who played previously at Phoenix College. The Suns opened the season with a starting lineup of Clem Haskins and Dick Van Arsdale at guard, Neal Walk at center and Connie Hawkins and Paul Silas at the forward spots.

On March 14, the Suns obtained the rights to Charlie Scott from the Boston Celtics in exchange for future considerations. Scott, a 6-6 guard from North Carolina, had played for the Virginia Squires of the ABA, where he averaged 35 points and was the 1971 ABA Co-Rookie of the Year along with Kentucky's Dan Issel.

Phoenix compiled a then, club record mark of 49-33, improving for the fourth consecutive year. Despite having the sixth-best record in the NBA, the Suns finished behind Milwaukee and Chicago in the tough Midwest Division and failed to qualify for the playoffs.

Hawkins and Silas represented the West team in the All-Star Game. It was Hawkins' third-straight appearance, as he led the West squad to a 112-110 win with 13 points.

Silas was named as the Suns' Most Valuable Player by the fans as he led the team in rebounding for the third-straight year (11.9). Hawkins led the club in scoring with a 21.0 average while Van Arsdale added 19.7 points per game. The Suns topped their previous best in attendance totaling 342,922 fans, an average of 8,346 per contest. Phoenix also became only the fourth team in league history to lead the NBA in free throws attempted, free throws made and free throw accuracy.

Season Review 72-73

38-44

The Suns began the season under the direction of the franchise's fourth head coach, Bill van Breda Kolff. He replaced Cotton Fitzsimmons, who left in the offseason to coach the Atlanta Hawks. However, seven games into the season, van Breda Kolff was dismissed and General Manager Jerry Colangelo once again assumed the coaching duties for the remainder of the season. He guided the Suns to a 35-40 record.

Phoenix played .500 ball through mid-January but struggled through the second half of the season, finishing third in its first season playing in the Pacific Division. The season did not lack for outstanding individual performances as Charlie Scott led the club in scoring with a franchise record 25.3 average and finished fifth in the NBA. He also became just the 10th guard in league history to score more than 2,000 points. Scott and Connie Hawkins were named to the Western Conference All-Star team. It was Scott's first appearance while Hawkins made his fourth consecutive visit.

Neal Walk enjoyed his finest season as a pro, averaging 20.2 points and 12.4 rebounds. He grabbed 1,006 rebounds, the only Suns center to this day to have totaled over 1,000 boards in a single season. Rookie Corky Calhoun from the University of Pennsylvania was the only Sun to play in all 82 games.

Season Review 73-74

John MacLeod took the Suns coaching reins from General Manager Jerry Colangelo during the offseason. The youthful MacLeod had coached the previous six years at the University of Oklahoma, leading the Sooners to a 90-69 record and two trips to the National Invitational Tournament.

New to the team were rookie Mike Bantom, the eighth pick in the 1973 NBA Draft, and Keith Erickson, who was acquired in the first month of the season from the L.A. Lakers in exchange for All-Star and future Hall of Famer Connie Hawkins. Phoenix went on a 10-game skid early in the season as they were learning a new system under MacLeod and playing one of the roughest portions of their schedule. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 30-52 mark, their lowest number of wins since their inaugural season.

Charlie Scott made his second-straight appearance in the All-Star Game and finished the season averaging 25.4 points but missed the final 29 games with a broken arm. Dick Van Arsdale averaged 17.8 points and led the Suns in field goal percentage (.500). Erickson was voted by fans as the Suns' Most Outstanding Player.

Season Review 74-75

The season was preceded by one of the largest transactions in Suns history with center Neal Walk and a second-round draft pick going to New Orleans in exchange for Curtis Perry, Dennis Awtrey, Nate Hawthorne and a first-round pick in 1976.

Also new to the team was rookie John Shumate, a 6-8 forward from Notre Dame who was the fourth pick in the 1974 NBA Draft. Unfortunately, Shumate had to sit out his rookie season so he could receive treatment for blood clots. Perry had his best season as a pro averaging 13 points and 12 rebounds, winning both the Suns' Most Outstanding and Most Popular Player awards.

Charlie Scott, who finished the season as the Suns' scoring leader (24.3), was the club's lone All-Star representative. On January 14, 1975, Phoenix became the "Professional Basketball Capital of the World." The 25th annual All-Star Game was the first one ever played in Phoenix. NBA Commissioner J. Walter Kennedy was presiding over his final NBA All-Star Game before retiring.

In late February, the Suns had a shot at the NBA Playoffs, but injuries to Dick Van Arsdale and Keith Erickson knocked them from contention. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 32-50 mark.

Season Review 75-76

The Suns opened what proved to be one of their most exciting seasons by winning 14 of their first 23 games. The 14-9 start was the best in franchise history. A string of injuries and a puzzling midseason slump had the Suns winning only four of their next 22, but after the All-Star break the Suns caught fire going 24-13 and storming into the playoffs against the Seattle SuperSonics. The team clinched its first playoff berth in six years by defeating the L.A. Lakers, 113-98, at Veterans Memorial Coliseum on April 8, 1976.

There were several reasons for the Suns turnaround: a Charlie Scott for Paul Westphal trade in the offseason, the drafting of Alvan Adams and Ricky Sobers, the acquisition of Al Bianchi as assistant coach, and the midseason trade that sent John Shumate to Buffalo and brought Garfield Heard to Phoenix.

Phoenix eliminated Seattle 4-2, then went on to upset the World Champion Golden State Warriors and Rick Barry, 4-3, to gain a berth in the NBA Finals against the fabled Boston Celtics, led by Dave Cowens and John Havlicek. The Suns lost the first two games in Boston, but came back to knot the series with a pair of victories in Phoenix.

Game 5 will no doubt go down in basketball history as one of the most exciting games ever played: A triple-overtime contest that eluded the Suns by a few precious seconds and cost them the World Championship. Boston won the series 4-2.

Alvan Adams was named the NBA Rookie of the Year and became only the 10th first-year player to be named to the midseason All-Star Game. General Manager Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

Season Review 76-77

34-48

It could have been and should have been the best of times. With the addition of first-round draft pick Ron Lee, and Tom and Dick Van Arsdale playing together for the first time as pros, the Suns seemed certain to make another strong playoff run. Indeed, the Suns entered the year with the highest of expectations, but had to watch helplessly as injuries eventually claimed the entire starting frontline.

Gar Heard and Curtis Perry each missed nearly half the season and Alvan Adams, who was injured in the fourth game of the season, did not regain top form until February. The Suns had all players healthy and available for duty for only six games the entire season and finished 34-48, fifth in the Pacific Division.

Paul Westphal led the club in scoring (21.3) for the second-straight season and was named to the All-NBA First Team for the first time in his career. Lee was named to the All-Rookie Team and the Suns set a new home attendance mark, averaging more than 10,000 fans per game.

Westphal was voted to the starting unit of the West squad at the All-Star Game in Milwaukee, scored 20 points and nearly captured the game's MVP award. As a team, the Suns set a new assist record (2,100) breaking the record they set in 1975-76. At the conclusion of the season, both Van Arsdales retired from the NBA.

On November 19, 1976, future Hall of Famer Connie Hawkins became the first Suns player to have his uniform number retired (42).

Season Review 77-78

49-33

The Suns announced a blockbuster trade just before the opening of the season: Ricky Sobers to Indiana for Don Buse, an All-Star and the NBA leader in both assists and steals. With Buse and rookie Walter Davis in the starting lineup, the Suns bolted from the gate and were 19-11 by Christmas and 34-16 by the February All-Star break. They finished with a 49-33 record, fourth best in the league, but were second in the Pacific Division behind the formidable Portland Trail Blazers, led by Bill Walton.

It was a record year for the Suns in many ways. A franchise record was set for attendance (11,464 per game). On the court, the Suns set NBA records for team steals in a season (1,059) as well as tying the league mark for assists (2,338). Davis and Paul Westphal were among the league's top 10 scorers, both averaging better than 24 points per game; both were named All-NBA Second Team and both participated for the West at the All-Star Game in Atlanta.

At the All-Star break, the Suns lost Curtis Perry with back problems and went the rest of the season with five rookies on the roster, more than any other NBA club. In the opening round of the playoffs the Suns were upset in two-straight games by the Milwaukee Bucks.

Davis went on to become the league's Rookie of the Year, the second such distinction for a Suns' player since Alvan Adams won the award following 1975-76 season. Buse was named to the NBA All-Defensive Team while Ron Lee led the league with 2.7 steals per game.

BACK ROW: Ronnie Lee, Curtis Perry, Alvan Adams, Dennis Awtrey, Bayard Forrest, Alvin Scott, Ira Terrell, Garfield Heard.

Season Review 78-79

Phoenix opened the regular season with the same starting lineup that began the 1977-78 season: Walter Davis and Gar Heard at forward, Alvan Adams at center, with Paul Westphal and Don Buse at guard. The Suns won five of their first six games and were 24-14 by January 1. By the All-Star break, the Suns were 32-20. For the third-straight year, Westphal was an All-Star starter, and Davis made it for the second-straight year.

On January 12, 1979, the Suns obtained Leonard "Truck" Robinson from the New Orleans Jazz in exchange for Ron Lee, Marty Byrnes, first-round picks in 1979 and 1980 and undisclosed cash. With an emotional overtime win over Seattle at Phoenix on March 30, the Suns qualified for the playoffs for the second year in a row and the fourth time in their 11 NBA seasons.

The regular season ended in spectacular fashion with the Suns capturing a record 50th win in the season's 80th game.

Phoenix led the NBA in steals with 915 (11.2 per game). Westphal was named All-NBA First Team, Davis was named to the second team. Buse was again named to the All-Defensive First Team. In the playoffs, the Suns got by Portland (2-1) and thrashed Kansas City (4-1), but lost to eventual World Champion Seattle SuperSonics, 4-3, in a hard-fought Western Conference Finals series.

Season Review 79-80

55-27

Phoenix opened the regular season on October 12 with a starting lineup of Walter Davis and Truck Robinson at forward, Alvan Adams at center and Don Buse and Paul Westphal at guard. The Suns were the only team in the NBA with five former All-Star participants as starters. By the All-Star break, Phoenix was 35-19.

On February 15, the Suns obtained center Rich Kelley from the New Jersey Nets in exchange for a second-round draft pick in 1983, a first-round pick in 1982 and cash. The Suns chased Seattle and the L.A. Lakers for the Pacific Division lead for virtually the entire 82-game schedule, moving into a tie for the lead in late November and early December. For the majority of the season, the Suns were locked in third place in the Pacific.

For the second season in a row Buse, Adams, Davis and Westphal all finished with over 300 assists, the only time in NBA history that four players on the same team had accomplished the feat. Davis and Westphal played in the NBA All-Star Game in Washington. Westphal and Davis were named to the All-NBA First Team and Second Teams, respectively. In the playoffs, the Suns defeated Kansas City, 2-1, then lost to the L.A. Lakers, 4-1.

In the winter of 1980, the Phoenix Suns Gorilla arrived on the scene in the form of an Eastern Onion singing telegram messenger. He was invited back, and has "hung" around ever since.

Season Review 80-81

57-25

When the Suns opened the season, questions surrounded newcomer Dennis Johnson, who had come to the Suns in a controversial deal that sent Paul Westphal to Seattle. There also were doubts about the Suns ability to adjust to the move of All-Star forward Walter Davis to the backcourt and the addition of Jeff Cook into the starting lineup at forward. The Suns responded with one of their most successful seasons ever, finishing with a then club-record 57 wins en route to their first division title and the best record in the Western Conference. Phoenix was out of first place for only two days.

The Suns' 36-5 home record tied their 1979-80 mark as the best in the club's history and their 21-20 record on the road was the first-ever winning road record. The Suns did not lose more than two games in a row all season.

The Suns played their 1,000th game on November 12, 1980, a 130-127 win over the visiting San Antonio Spurs.

The All-Star Game in Cleveland had a distinctive Phoenix flavor with John MacLeod and the Suns coaching staff at the helm of the West squad. Davis was voted to a starting forward position by the fans and Johnson and Truck Robinson were named to the team by a vote of Western Conference coaches.

In the playoffs, the Suns were surprised by a gritty Kansas City Kings club, led by former Suns' coach Cotton Fitzsimmons, that took the Western Conference Semifinals 4-3. At season's end, Johnson was named to the All-NBA First Team and All-Defensive First Team. Suns General Manager Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for the second time by The Sporting News.

Season Review 81-82

RECORD
46-36

The Suns were dealt a crippling blow just days before the season opened when guard Walter Davis suffered a fractured elbow in the final preseason game. Kyle Macy joined Dennis Johnson, Alvan Adams, Truck Robinson and Jeff Cook in the Suns' opening night starting lineup. Seeking the right combinations and the proper chemistry, 1981-82 became a season of constant change and experimentation as Head Coach John MacLeod utilized 21 different starting units.

Alvin Scott supplanted Cook in the starting lineup and later in the season Scott was supplanted by Adams, who shifted from his normal center position to allow Rich Kelley into the starting lineup. Davis began his comeback in late December, but it became clear his elbow, still joined by surgical tension wires and screws, would keep him from reaching top form. He was used in a sixth man role most of the year.

With a month remaining in the season, the Suns found themselves embroiled in a heated Western Conference playoff race. The Suns finished the regular season with a 46-36 mark, good enough for third place in the NBA Pacific Division and a playoff berth. Phoenix opened postseason play by defeating Denver, 2-1, in a hard-fought series, winning the deciding game on the Nuggets' home court. In the Western Conference Semifinals, however, the Suns ran into a L.A. Lakers juggernaut and were swept by the Lakers (4-0) who went on to sweep San Antonio, then defeated Philadelphia to win the NBA Championship. Johnson was named to the NBA All-Defensive First Team and was the lone Suns representative at the midseason All-Star Game in New Jersey.

Season Review 82-83

53-29

The Suns were ready for change. They traded Truck Robinson to New York for forward Maurice Lucas. They installed second-year man Larry Nance at the small forward slot and welcomed back a healthy Walter Davis at guard. The only holdovers in the starting lineup from 1981-82 were center Alvan Adams and guard Dennis Johnson.

As the season progressed, so did Nance. He finished the year by leading the Suns in field goal percentage (.550) and set a new franchise record for blocked shots in a season with 217.

In spite of their success, the Suns had a glaring weakness at backup center, where they juggled Jeff Cook, Joel Kramer and Lucas. With starting center Adams undersized at 6-9, the Suns needed help in the middle. Phoenix traded Cook, cash, a third-round draft pick in 1983 and other considerations to Cleveland in exchange for 7-1 center James Edwards, who was coming back after early season knee surgery.

Following the All-Star break, the Suns won 23 of the 30 games and finished the season as the hottest team in the league, winning six straight. Phoenix won 14 of its final 16 games and in the process matched its best-ever season road record (21-20). The Suns qualified for postseason play for the sixth-straight year and the seventh time in eight seasons, but were eliminated by Denver, 2-1, in the opening round.

Season Review 83-84

41-41

Due to a flood of injuries to such key players as James Edwards, Rick Robey and Paul Westphal, Suns Head Coach John MacLeod was forced to juggle his starters, searching for a consistency that did not materialize until late in the season.

The Suns struggled on the road. Only their fine home court record (31-10) kept them in the playoff race until the late stages of the season, when they put together six-straight wins, their longest winning streak of the season.

Walter Davis returned to the Western Conference All-Star squad and Larry Nance won the NBA Slam Dunk Championship in Denver.

The Suns saved their most remarkable performances for the playoffs. They defeated Portland in a hard-fought five-game first-round series, winning the fifth and deciding game on the Trail Blazers' home court. They proceeded to upend Midwest Division Champion Utah in six games in the next round, highlighted by a remarkable 111-110 overtime win in Game 4 at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum. The Suns then took on the L.A. Lakers in the Western Conference Finals. The Suns pushed the talented Lakers to six games, defeating them 135-127 in overtime in Game 3 in Phoenix and staving off elimination with a 126-121 upset win in Los Angeles with a dogged performance in Game 5. The Suns were finally eliminated in Game 6, but only when their final shot didn't connect in a 99-97 nail-biter.

Season Review 84-85

36-46

The addition of promising rookie guard Jay Humphries gave the Suns renewed hope for the season. The optimism proved fleeting however, when the Suns' leading scorer and five-time All-Star Walter Davis crashed to the Inglewood Forum floor on October 9 during a preseason game. Davis would miss the first two-thirds of the season with three torn ligaments in his left knee and would never regain full mobility during a courageous comeback attempt.

Rick Robey, Mike Sanders, Kyle Macy and Larry Nance also would miss considerable time due to injury, bringing the Suns total player games missed for the year to 266.

The Suns jumped out to a surprising 5-0 start, the best beginning in the history of the franchise. It was Nance who assumed the leadership role with Davis gone, leading the club in scoring (19.9) and virtually every other statistical category. Nance was named the NBA's first Player of the Week for the season. He would go on to make his first appearance in an NBA All-Star Game.

The Suns ranked second in the NBA in assists (2,335) dishing out more than 2,000 for the 10th year in a row. They qualified for the playoffs, but were knocked out 3-0 in the first round by the L.A. Lakers.

The Suns averaged 12,035 fans per game, setting a new attendance record for the franchise, breaking the old mark of 11,883 per game set during the 1981-82 campaign.

The Suns ended the regular season with "Suns Reunion '85," bringing back 24 former Suns players and coaches to participate in a weekend of Suns nostalgia, capped by an exhibition basketball game.

BACK ROW: Mike Sanders, Charles Pittman, Alvan Adams, Larry Nance, James Edwards, Rick Robey, Maurice Lucas, Charles Jones, Alvin Scott.

Season Review 85-86

In the weeks preceding the opener, the Suns confirmed their desire to go with youth and speed by trading veteran Maurice Lucas to the Los Angeles Lakers and allowing Kyle Macy to sign with Chicago. All-Star forward Larry Nance was a contract holdout throughout training camp and preseason before coming to terms one game into the regular season. Opening night's starting lineup consisted of Jay Humphries and Walter Davis at guard, Alvan Adams at center, with Mike Sanders and Charles Jones at forward.

Phoenix got off to the then worst start in franchise history, going 0-9. During that period, the Suns successfully negotiated for the services of Georgi Glouchkov, a center from the Bulgarian National Team, who became the first Eastern Bloc player to play in the NBA. At first, Glouchkov captured national media attention, as well as the affection of Phoenix fans, but communication difficulty, not to mention achilles tendinitis, would drastically curtail his playing time as the season progressed.

Both Davis and Adams passed the 12,000-point plateau for their NBA careers with Davis taking over the Suns all-time scoring lead. Davis led the team in scoring (21.8), while Nance became the club's top rebounder (8.5). For the first time in their history, the Suns did not place a player on the squad for the NBA All-Star Game.

The Suns attendance held its own for the season, with an average of 11,121 per game. The Suns could never recover from their 0-9 beginning and finished the year 32-50, failing to make the playoffs for the first time in nine seasons.

FRONT ROW: Assistant Coach John Wetzel, Head Coach John MacLeod, Rod Foster, Walter Davis, Bernard Thompson, Mike Sanders, Jay Humphries, Assistant Coach Al Bianchi, Trainer Joe Proski.

Season Review 86-87

36-46

The Suns opened the season with Larry Nance and Ed Pinckney at forward, Alvan Adams at center and Walter Davis and Jay Humphries at guard. That unit would start 26 of the Suns' 82 games, but 19 other starting combinations would get a shot along the way. Phoenix had five rookies on the club including William Bedford, the team's first-round pick (sixth overall), diamond-in-the-rough Jeff Hornacek, Rafael Addison, Grant Gondrezick and Kenny Gattison. The Suns' 12-12 record in mid-December would be the last time they would be at .500.

On February 26, after consecutive losses to the L.A. Lakers and their record at 22-34, the Suns released their head coach of 13-plus seasons, John MacLeod, replacing him with interim Head Coach Dick Van Arsdale.

Under Van Arsdale, the Suns halted their skid, going 14-12 over the season's final 26 games. During the final two weeks, the Suns won nine of their last 10 games and 12 of their last 15. They won nine straight at home to end the season. Davis led the team in scoring with a 23.6 average while Nance chipped in 22.5 points per game. Davis also made his sixth appearance in the All-Star Game.

Season Review 87-88

RECORD
28-54

When the Phoenix Suns projected their opening night lineup, rookie Head Coach John Wetzel envisioned a starting unit of Larry Nance and Armon Gilliam at forward, James Edwards at center with Walter Davis and Jay Humphries at guard. During the season's final month, the Suns' starting unit had evolved into Eddie Johnson at small forward, Gilliam at power forward, Mark West at center, Kevin Johnson and Jeff Hornacek at guard.

The Suns finished the season with a 28-54 record, their poorest record since their 16-66 expansion season in 1968-69. However, in Suns history, 1987-88 will likely be referred to as "The Year of the Trade." In late February, Suns Director of Player Personnel, Cotton Fitzsimmons, orchestrated a series of trades that changed the face and the fortunes of the Suns. In the largest single transaction to that point in the 20-year history of the Suns franchise, Fitzsimmons dealt Nance and Mike Sanders, along with Detroit's first-round pick in 1988 to Cleveland in exchange for the Cavs' first- and second-round draft picks in 1988, and players KJ, West and Tyrone Corbin. The Suns finished off the trading flurry by sending Humphries to Milwaukee for Craig Hodges.

The new-look Suns put together a respectable 11-9 record over the last quarter of the season and KJ won Rookie of the Month honors for April. Shortly after the end of the season, Wetzel was released and was replaced by Fitzsimmons, who was making his second appearance as the Suns' head coach.

Season Review 88-89

55-27

When the season began, no one predicted that the Suns would end up with the fourth-best record in the NBA and give the defending World Champion Los Angeles Lakers a serious run for the Pacific Division title. However, the Suns did just that on their way to the third-biggest turnaround in NBA history, improving by 27 games.

The 1988-89 Suns did not resemble any past Suns squads as Jeff Hornacek was the lone holdover from two years before. Director of Player Personnel Cotton Fitzsimmons took over as head coach prior to the season and brought assistant coaches Paul Westphal, Lionel Hollins and Truck Robinson on board.

The Suns won 55 games, including 18 of their last 22 games. They were the only team in the league to have three players average 20-plus points (Tom Chambers 25.7, Eddie Johnson 21.5, Kevin Johnson 20.4) and led the league with 118.6 points per game.

The Suns set a new Coliseum attendance record with an average of 12,465 fans at home and 18 sellouts, also a franchise record.

The Suns defeated Denver in the first round of the playoffs and won their second round series against Golden State 4-1. Next up were the Lakers in the Western Conference Finals. They played the Lakers tough but fell 4-0.

The Suns were showered with postseason awards. Eddie Johnson won the NBA Sixth Man Award, Kevin Johnson was named the Most Improved Player, Fitzsimmons won NBA Coach of the Year and President and CEO Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for the third time. It was the first time in NBA history that a single team won four postseason league awards. Chambers and KJ were also selected to the All-NBA Second Team.

Season Review 89-90

RECORD
54-28

The 1989-90 Suns featured eight returning players from the previous year's team and finished 54-28.

Phoenix ended the season second in the NBA in points scored (114.9) and 22 road wins established a new team record. The Suns also established a new NBA record on April 9 when they hit 61 free throws against Utah. The club won a single season team-record 19 in a row at home.

Tom Chambers set the club record for total points in a season (2,201) and scoring average (27.2) and placed fourth in the league in scoring average.

Head Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons reached the .500 mark for his career with a win over Philadelphia on February 24. It was the first time he was at the .500 level since March 7, 1976, when he was head coach of Atlanta. Fitzsimmons, the 1989 NBA Coach of the Year, was named Coach of the Month for February.

The Suns set an all-time regular season home attendance record on April 3 against Dallas, and played in front of 578,661 fans on the year. The Suns had 26 sellouts to set a new franchise record, topping the old mark of 18 set in 1988-89.

Phoenix began playoff competition with a hard-fought 3-2 series win over Utah. They then defeated the L.A. Lakers, 4-1, in the Western Conference Semifinals; the first time a Suns team defeated the Lakers in a seven-game playoff series. The Suns then lost to Portland, 4-2, in the conference finals. Chambers and Kevin Johnson were both named to the All-NBA Second Team.

Season Review 90-91

55-27

Following two consecutive trips to the Western Conference Finals and two-straight 50-plus win seasons, expectations of the Suns were high. They did not disappoint as the club finished 55-27.

The Suns took off for Tokyo, Japan, to open the season with two games against Utah. It marked the first time that professional sports teams from the United States played regular season games outside of North America. The Suns and Jazz split the two games.

The Suns set several records versus Denver on November 10. In that game, Head Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons won his 700th career game, becoming only the seventh coach in NBA history to achieve that mark. As a team, the Suns set a new NBA record for points in a half, scoring 107 first-half points, and tied the record for points in a non-overtime game with 173 vs. Denver on November 10.

On November 27 in Portland, the Suns defeated the Trail Blazers 123-109, ending a 20-game losing streak in Portland.

Phoenix set another club record with its 13-3 mark in March, the most wins by a Suns team in any month.

Phoenix finished the year with a 32-9 record at home and a 23-18 mark on the road. The 23 road wins eclipsed the record of 22 set during the 1989-90 season. However, the Suns lost in the opening round of the playoffs, 3-1, to Utah.

Season Review 91-92

53-29

The Suns' 53-29 record marked the fourth-straight year with 50 or more wins. The Suns opened the season with a grueling November in which they went 8-9, but rebounded to go 11-1 in December, 10-6 in January, 7-6 in an injury-plagued February, 12-3 in March and 5-4 in April.

The season included the franchise's 1,000th career win as the Suns became just the 12th franchise in NBA history to reach the 1,000-win plateau and only Milwaukee, Boston, Philadelphia and the Lakers did so in less time. Phoenix's 36-5 home record tied the team's previous best set during the 1978-90 and 1980-81 seasons.

Five Suns players – Jeff Hornacek, Kevin Johnson, Dan Majerle, Tom Chambers and Tim Perry – averaged double figure scoring as Phoenix averaged 112.1 points, second in the league.

The Suns completed their 24th and final season at Veterans Memorial Coliseum by setting a new regular season attendance record with sellouts in each of the 41 home games.

The Suns defeated San Antonio, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs and lost to Portland, 4-1, in the second round. The last NBA game played at Veterans Memorial Coliseum was a 153-151 overtime loss May 11 in Game 4 against Portland. KJ scored 35 points for the Suns while Clyde Drexler pumped in 33 for the Blazers.

Season Review 92-93

62-20

The Suns had high expectations going into their 25th Anniversary season in the new America West Arena. Bolstered by a June 17, 1992, trade for Charles Barkley which sent Jeff Hornacek, Andrew Lang and Tim Perry to Philadelphia, Phoenix led the NBA with a franchise-record 62 wins. Phoenix also acquired veteran guard Danny Ainge and elevated Paul Westphal to head coach.

Westphal became the winningest rookie coach in NBA history and Barkley went on to become the first Phoenix player to be named NBA MVP.

The Suns began the season without Kevin Johnson, who missed 31 games due to injury. However, the Suns had a perfect December as Phoenix tied the NBA's third-best mark for a month with a 14-0 record.

At the All-Star Game, Phoenix was represented by the West's leading vote-getter Barkley and reserve Dan Majerle, as well as Westphal and his staff who led the West to victory.

Barkley averaged 25.6 points and 12.2 rebounds and led the Suns to their second Pacific Division title. The club led the NBA in scoring (113.4), broke the NBA record for three-pointers made (398) and set a franchise home attendance record (779,943). Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for an unprecedented fourth time.

Down 0-2 against the L.A. Lakers in the first round of the playoffs, the Suns became the first team in history to come back and win 3-2. The Suns downed Seattle in seven games to earn a trip to the NBA Finals against Chicago. Phoenix lost the first two games at home, but won two of the next three in Chicago, including Game 3, a triple-overtime affair that saw Majerle tie an NBA Finals record with six three-pointers and KJ set an NBA Finals record with 62 total minutes played. But the Suns came up short as John Paxson buried a three-pointer with 3.9 seconds remaining in Game 6 in Phoenix to give the Bulls a 4-2 series win and their third-straight NBA Championship.

Season Review 93-94

56-26

The Suns added veterans A.C. Green and Joe Kleine to their Western Conference Championship team, but battled injuries throughout the season. Despite losing 211 player games to injury and illness the Suns posted a 56-26 record, the fifth best overall mark in the NBA. The Suns posted an impressive 13-2 record in December, but the team's fortunes took a drastic turn for the worse in January. After playing the first two months of the season virtually injury-free, the Suns top two players, Kevin Johnson and Charles Barkley, went down with injuries. Johnson missed 15 games from January 5 to February 6 with a sprained right ankle and a bout with chicken pox. Barkley suffered a torn quadriceps tendon in his right knee, January 7, at Minnesota and missed the next 17 contests. The team struggled to a 7-8 mark, their first losing month since November 1991.

Cedric Ceballos, who returned to the lineup after missing the first 29 games, led the team during January and had two 40-point nights in a three-game stretch. Green averaged 19.3 points and led the team with 11.4 rebounds. Phoenix bounced back to capture an 8-4 mark in February. KJ, Barkley and Danny Ainge all returned to the lineup. KJ played in his third All-Star Game while Barkley, the league's leading vote-getter in balloting, was unable to play due to injury.

The Suns' march to the playoffs included a seven-game win streak. KJ had an impressive April, including a Suns record 25 assists in a win over San Antonio on April 6. The Suns beat Golden State 3-0 in the first round. In Game 3, Barkley scored 56 points, the third highest total ever in an NBA playoff game. After overcoming a 20-point fourth quarter deficit to take Game 1, the Suns again came from behind to win Game 2 of their second-round matchup against Houston. But, the eventual champion Rockets were too tough, and battled back to take the series 4-3.

Season Review 94-95

59-23

A flurry of offseason activity brought free agents Danny Manning and Wayman Tisdale to a talent-laden roster as six current or former All-Stars suited up. While the team appeared ready to take their final step toward an NBA title, injuries plagued the club early and often. Charles Barkley strained an abdominal muscle during preseason and missed the first 11 games. Kevin Johnson sat out 35 games during the year with leg injuries. Most damaging was the season-ending knee injury Manning suffered February 6, after averaging 17.9 points and 6.0 rebounds in 46 games.

Rookie Wesley Person, Elliot Perry and Dan Majerle enabled the Suns to withstand the injury firestorm and hold the NBA's top mark (38-10) at the break. Person earned a place on the NBA's All-Rookie Second Team. Perry finished second in voting for the NBA's Most Improved Player award, while Majerle became the first reserve to be voted to start on an All-Star team.

Majerle, Barkley and the rest of the West team were coached to a win by Suns Head Coach Paul Westphal at the 45th annual All-Star Game at America West Arena.

The Suns won eight of their last nine games to capture their third Pacific Division title and earn the second seed in the playoffs.

The Suns swept Portland, 3-0, setting up a rematch with Houston. Gaining momentum in the second round, the Suns took a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven-game series. But the defending champions refused to give up and battled back to win three-straight, including an overtime victory in Game 5 and a one-point win in Game 7, on their way to a second-straight NBA championship.

Season Review 95-96

41-41

Several outstanding individual performances and historical milestones highlighted the season, most notably Charles Barkley becoming the 10th player in NBA history to reach the 20,000 point-10,000 rebound level (Feb. 19 vs. Vancouver).

The Suns failed to win 50 or more games for the first time since 1987-88 and endured 26 lineup changes and 296 games missed due to injury/illness.

At the start of training camp, the Suns acquired John "Hot Rod" Williams from Cleveland for Dan Majerle, Antonio Lang and a conditional first-round draft pick. On January 16, Cotton Fitzsimmons replaced Paul Westphal as head coach and guided the team to a 27-22 record in his third stint at the Suns helm.

Danny Manning missed the first 42 games recovering from a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee, but played in 33 of the remaining 40 and averaged 13.4 points and 4.3 rebounds. Barkley averaged 23.2 points and 11.6 rebounds, his best averages since earning the league MVP award in 1993. He was also Player of the Month for February. Kevin Johnson, the NBA's Player of the Week (April 7), overcame early-season injuries that forced him to miss 26 games and averaged 18.7 points and 9.2 assists.

Michael Finley, who was named to the NBA All-Rookie First Team, became the first Suns rookie since Walter Davis to score 1,000 points. A.C. Green completed his ninth-straight season without missing a game and pushed his consecutive games played streak to 813, third in NBA history.

The Suns were the No. 7 seed in the West and were without Finley, who suffered a sprained left ankle in the final quarter of the season finale at Houston. For the first time since 1991, the Suns lost in the first round, as San Antonio scored a 3-1 series win.

Season Review 96-97

40-42

In a season of growth and transition, Phoenix overcame a club-worst 0-13 start and qualified for the postseason. The Suns became the first team in NBA history to make the playoffs after losing its first 13 games.

The reshaping of the team began with the offseason trade of Charles Barkley to Houston in exchange for veterans Chucky Brown, Mark Bryant, Robert Horry and Sam Cassell and the signing of free agent Rex Chapman and rookie Steve Nash. Then on December 26, 1996, the Suns acquired All-Star guard Jason Kidd from Dallas, along with Tony Dumas and Loren Meyer, for fan favorites Michael Finley, A.C. Green and Cassell. Less than a month after the Kidd trade, former Sun Cedric Ceballos was re-acquired in a deal that sent Horry and Joe Kleine to the Lakers.

Bolstered by the improved lineup and new Head Coach Danny Ainge, who took the reins from Cotton Fitzsimmons on November 15, 1996, the new-look Suns compiled a 19-6 mark over the final two months of the season and qualified for the playoffs. The "small ball" group of Kevin Johnson, Kidd, Chapman and Wesley Person carried the bulk of the scoring load down the stretch. Phoenix averaged a league-best 109.9 points in that time. The club's torrid second half included an 11-game winning streak from March 20 to April 10 that enabled Phoenix to become the first team in league history to own a double-digit losing streak and a double-digit winning steak in the same season.

While the Suns fell 3-2 to Seattle in the first round of the 1997 postseason, the series was memorable. Chapman's running, one-handed three-pointer with 1.7 seconds remaining in Game 4 sent the game into overtime. Chapman connected on an NBA-record nine three-pointers and had a playoff career-high 42 points in the Suns' Game 1 win at Seattle.

KJ became just the sixth player in league history to record 11,500 points, 6,000 assists, 2,000 rebounds and 1,000 steals for his career.

Season Review 97-98

56-26

The 1997-98 season was poised as a rebuilding season, but far exceeded expectations. The club convinced Kevin Johnson to put off his retirement and play his 11th NBA season, signed free agents Clifford Robinson and George McCloud and acquired Antonio McDyess from Denver for Wesley Person, Tony Dumas and four draft picks in a three-team trade.

The Suns' 17-9 record at the end of December was their best start since the 1994-95 season when they ended the season with the second-best record in the league. However, an injury to Danny Manning (torn ACL on April 7) changed the complexion of the team for the rest of the season and into the playoffs, but the Suns were able to finish strong by winning 11 of their last 12 games.

The club put together a 10-game winning streak, including wins over Seattle, Portland, L.A. Lakers and Houston, from March 25 to April 17 and the Suns were a perfect 6-0 on the road in April.

Phoenix recorded 10 of the 15 top defensive performances in team history. Suns opponents were limited to 80 points or less 14 times, and the Suns were 45-9 when holding their opponents to below 100 points.

Manning earned the NBA's Sixth Man Award, becoming only the second player in franchise history, and the first in nine years, to be so honored. Jason Kidd was named to the West All-Star team, his second appearance, and the Suns' first since 1996.

The Suns faced San Antonio in the first round of playoffs with a homecourt advantage. The Spurs won the first game but the Suns came back and won the second game to even the series. San Antonio won both games at the Alamodome by an average of 15.5 points to win the series, 3-1.

Johnson moved past Nate "Tiny" Archibald into 10th place on the all-time NBA career assist list, and on March 29 he scored his 13,000th career point.

FRONT ROW: Assistant Coach Roger Reid, Assistant Coach Scott Skiles, Rex Chapman, Kevin Johnson, Jason Kidd, Steve Nash, George McCloud, Head Coach Danny Ainge, Assistant Coach Frank Johnson, Trainer Joe Proski. BACK ROW: Dennis Scott, Danny Manning, Horacio Llamas, Loren Meyer, John "Hot Rod" Williams, Clifford Robinson, Antonio McDyess, Mark Bryant, Marko Milic.

Season Review 98-99

27-23

A season that began late and was shortened due to labor strife finished with the Suns earning an 11th-straight berth in the NBA Playoffs. The NBA suffered through a lockout from June 30 through January 21, and as a result the season was reduced to 50 regular season games. After the lockout, the club added All-Star Tom Gugliotta and three-time NBA titlist Luc Longley while re-signing free agents Rex Chapman, Clifford Robinson and George McCloud.

The top individual performance was turned in by Jason Kidd, who gained All-NBA First Team and All-Defensive First Team honors at season's end. He became the first Suns player to lead the league in assists (10.8 apg) and also topped all NBA guards with 6.8 rebounds. Kidd posted seven triple-doubles, with the rest of the NBA combining for 11.

For the second-straight season, the Suns led the league in assists with 25.0 per game, backed by Kidd's league-best average. Phoenix also placed second with a .372 three-point field goal percentage, as Robinson finished eighth with a career-best .417 and McCloud was ninth at .416.

A playoff berth was in jeopardy as Phoenix owned a 15-18 mark in early April. However, the Suns won their final eight home games and finished the season with a 12-5 mark to tie for third in the Pacific Division. The eight-straight home wins were the most since 1994-95 when the team won its first 13 home games of the season.

Phoenix faced Pacific Division champion Portland in the opening round of the playoffs and dropped the series, 3-0, as all three games were decided late in the fourth quarter.

Head Coach Danny Ainge became the second fastest Suns coach to reach 100 wins, as the team won at Denver on February 15 to give Ainge his 100th win in 162 games.

Season Review 99-00

RECORD
53-29

In a season that was anything but scripted, the Suns recorded 50 or more wins for the ninth time in 12 seasons and advanced to the Western Conference Semifinals for the first time since 1995.

Phoenix opened the playoffs with a 3-1 series win over defending champion San Antonio before falling to the eventual champion Lakers 4-1 in the second-round.

Defensively the Suns had their top season ever, limiting opponents to 93.7 points and .424 shooting from the field. Jason Kidd and Clifford Robinson were each named NBA All-Defensive Second Team and Kidd finished tied for fifth in the NBA with 2.0 steals.

Kidd was named All-NBA First Team for the second-straight season and led all Western Conference guards in All-Star voting. Rodney Rogers won the NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award with the second-highest percentage of the vote in history (86.0%) and Shawn Marion earned NBA All-Rookie Second Team honors.

The season was one of challenges as the Suns lost a total of 269 games due to injury, with Anfernee Hardaway (right foot, 21 games) and Marion (left knee, 31 games) missing most of two months. On December 13 with the club 13-7, Head Coach Danny Ainge unexpectedly stepped down and lead assistant Scott Skiles was promoted to the top spot. Days later without three starters, the Suns pulled out a 110-102 win at Portland behind Tom Gugliotta's 17 points and 14 rebounds. Within an hour of the win, he suffered a seizure on the team bus and missed seven games. Back to form and playing perhaps his best ball of the season, he went down on March 10 with a season-ending left knee injury.

Robinson moved into the starting lineup in December due to the injuries and supplied the missing offense. He finished the season with a team-best 18.5 points that included an America West Arena record and career-high 50 points on January 16 in a 113-100 win.

With the return of Hardaway and Marion the club started to gel, going 10-3 in February and 12-4 in March (13-1 at home during that time). Too good to be true, Kidd went down March 22 with a fractured left ankle that left him sidelined until Game 4 of the opening round of the playoffs. Suns great Kevin Johnson came out of retirement on March 25 to replace Kidd on the active roster.

Season Review 00-01

51-31

Competing in the toughest conference in NBA history, the Suns owned the eighth-best record in the NBA and finished with 50-plus wins for the 10th time in 13 seasons as seven Western Conference teams had 50 or more victories.

Phoenix posted its top defensive season in club history by allowing 91.8 points per game, fewest in the team's existence, and held opponents to .435 shooting from the field, second-best in club history.

Phoenix was the only NBA team to have five people average double figures in scoring with Shawn Marion topping the team with 17.3, Jason Kidd at 16.9, Clifford Robinson averaging 16.4 points, newcomer Tony Delk adding 12.3 points and Rodney Rogers at 12.2 points. Marion also emerged as a factor on the glass in his second season as he finished eighth in the NBA with 10.8 rebounds to become the first Sun since 1995-96 and sixth player in team history to average 10-plus rebounds for a season.

For the second-straight season the Suns had a player score 50 points as Delk reached the mark at Sacramento, his former team, with an ARCO Arena record 53 points on January 2 in an overtime loss to the Kings.

Kidd joined Oscar Robertson, Bob Cousy and John Stockton as the only players in NBA history to win the assist title three-straight seasons with a league-high 9.8 assists. Kidd was also named All-NBA First Team for the third consecutive season and NBA All-Defensive First Team.

The Suns finished the season with an NBA-best 13-4 mark after March 19, a stretch that included a nine-game home winning streak to close out the year. Phoenix placed third in the Pacific Division and sixth in the Western Conference.

That led to a first-round playoff matchup against Sacramento and the Suns opened the series with a win at Sacramento but then lost three in a row to fall to the Kings.

Season Review 01-02

36-46

It was a season of transition for the Suns as 20 different players dotted the roster during the season. Three in-season trades, two summer trades and a coaching change were factors in the season of flux and Phoenix missed the playoffs for the first time since 1987-88.

Prior to the season the Suns acquired Stephon Marbury from New Jersey in exchange for Jason Kidd and John Wallace and Jud Buechler from Detroit for Clifford Robinson. During the season the Suns added Jake Voskuhl, Bo Outlaw, Joe Johnson, Milt Palacio and Randy Brown through trades. On February 17 the club had a change of leadership when Frank Johnson took over for Scott Skiles.

But the flurry of activity did not stop the Suns from winning the 1,500th game in club history with a 92-83 win over San Antonio on February 24. In the process the Suns became the fourth-fastest franchise in NBA history to reach the 1,500-win mark.

In his first season with the Suns, Marbury averaged a team-best 20.4 points, the first time a Phoenix player averaged 20-plus points since 1996-97 when Kevin Johnson had 20.1 points. Shawn Marion added 19.1 points to give the Suns their first 19-plus point tandem since 1993-94 when Charles Barkley (21.6) and KJ (20.0) turned the trick. Marbury was also sixth in the NBA with 8.1 assists and Marion was one of two NBA players to be ranked in the top 40 in seven of the league's nine major statistical categories, including eighth with 9.9 rebounds.

The season marked the last in the 14-year NBA career of Dan Majerle and the Phoenix fan favorite finished his career with a made three-pointer to give him 800 for his Suns tenure and 1,360 (fifth in NBA history) over his career.

After joining the Suns on February 20 from Boston in a trade for Rodney Rogers and Tony Delk, Joe Johnson averaged 9.6 points and 4.1 rebounds in 29 games and earned All-NBA Rookie Second Team honors at season's end.

Season Review 02-03

44-38

Only one year removed from missing the postseason, the Suns reemerged as playoff contenders by securing the eighth and final seed in the competitive Western Conference. Sparking the eight-game improvement were 2003 All-Stars Stephon Marbury and Shawn Marion, the veteran leadership of Anfernee Hardaway and 2002-03 "got milk?" NBA Rookie of the Year Amar'e Stoudemire.

The Suns weren't just content with being back on their postseason course, though. The young squad put a scare into the NBA's top team and eventual NBA Champion San Antonio Spurs by stealing two victories in their first-round series on a couple of improbable game-winning shots by Marbury (Game 1) and Jake Voskuhl (Game 4).

The Suns' turnaround began at the 2002 NBA Draft when Phoenix selected high school phenom Stoudemire and Casey Jacobsen in the first round. Stoudemire eventually became the league's youngest ROY winner in the award's history and just the third Suns player to win the honor, following Walter Davis in 1977-78 and Alvan Adams in 1975-76.

Phoenix also got two All-Star performances from its top two players, Marbury and Marion, who became the Suns' first All-Star duo since 1995 (Charles Barkley and Dan Majerle). Marbury was the only player in the NBA to be in the top 12 in points (22.3, 12th) and assists (8.1, 4th), and capped his season with his second selection to the All-NBA Third Team. Marion finished the season as the only player ranked in top 20 in points (21.2, 17th) and top 10 in rebounds (9.5, 8th) and steals (2.28, 3rd).

Phoenix was a season-best 10 games above .500 on Jan. 12 (24-14) until injuries to three of the team's five opening night starters (Hardaway, Jake Tsakalidis, Tom Gugliotta) sent the team into a midseason slump. Led by Frank Johnson, in his first full season as head coach, the Suns won eight of their last 12 games to clinch a playoff spot in the final week of the regular season.

The campaign was only the second in the franchise's 35 years and the first since 1970-71 that the Suns did not make a player addition/subtraction or coaching change during the season.

Season Review 03-04

29-53

From the roster to the coaching staff to the arena they play in, 2003-04 became a season of change and adjustment for the Phoenix Suns.

The season began with high hopes, but after struggling through the first six weeks, the Suns opted for a coaching change. Mike D'Antoni was named the club's 12th head coach in team history on Dec. 10, replacing Frank Johnson. Less than one month later on Jan. 5, Phoenix pulled off a major deal that sent Stephon Marbury, Anfernee Hardaway and Cezary Trybanski to New York for Antonio McDyess, Howard Eisley, Maciej Lampe, Charlie Ward, the draft rights to Milos Vujanic, two first-round picks and cash.

Even though the team finished 29-53 and missed the playoffs, the deal offered salary cap flexibility and transformed the club into the youngest team in the NBA, and put the franchise in excellent position to improve via free agency in the offseason.

One player who clearly benefited from the trade was Joe Johnson, who took advantage of increased playing time, and averaged nearly 20 points, five rebounds and five assists in the final 48 games. After a slow start, Amar'e Stoudemire led the Suns in scoring with 20.6 points, but played in only 55 games due to a left ankle, big toe injury.

Suns Chairman and CEO Jerry Colangelo was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. on April 5, joining former Suns player Connie Hawkins as a recipient of the sport's highest honor. Shortly after the season ended, Arizona native Robert Sarver led an investment group that purchased the club for an NBA record $401 million on June 30.

Season Review 04-05

62-20

The Phoenix Suns posted one of the most remarkable turnarounds in NBA history under the direction of new majority owner Robert Sarver and became only the second team in NBA history (1979-80 Boston Celtics) to post a 60-win season following a 50-loss season. Prior to the start of the season, few could have predicted what would ensue… best record in the NBA, the third-greatest turnaround in league history, a franchise-record tying 62 regular season victories, including a remarkable 31-10 road record, the team's first trip to the Western Conference Finals since 1993, and NBA MVP (Steve Nash), Coach of the Year (Mike D'Antoni) and Executive of the Year (Bryan Colangelo) individual honors.

Aided by the offseason signings of Nash and Quentin Richardson, the Suns jumped out to a 31-4 start and never looked back. The two teamed with Amar'e Stoudemire, Shawn Marion and Joe Johnson to form one of the most explosive starting fives in the NBA in recent memory. The club's high-octane offense posted the league's highest scoring average in a decade (110.4) and broke the NBA record for most three-pointers made in a single season (796).

The surprising Suns were well represented at the 2005 All-Star Weekend in Denver with the entire starting five in attendance, including the outstanding trio of Nash, Stoudemire and Marion in the main event. Nash was the catalyst for the Suns' 33-game improvement and was rewarded by becoming only the second Suns player (Charles Barkley, 1992-93) to be named NBA MVP after averaging 15.5 points and a career-high 11.5 assists. In only his third NBA season, Stoudemire averaged a team-high 26.0 points, trailing only Tom Chambers' franchise-best 27.2 scoring average set in 1989-90. Marion, who averaged 19.4 points and a career-high 11.3 rebounds, became only the second player ever (David Robinson, 1991-92) to rank in the top five in the league in rebounding and steals.

After locking up home-court advantage throughout the playoffs, the top-seeded Suns earned their first sweep ever in a best-of-seven series by ousting the Memphis Grizzlies in the first round. Then despite losing Johnson to a devastating orbital bone fracture that sidelined him for the remainder of the Western Conference Semifinals in Game 2, the Suns bounced back in spectacular fashion to knock off the Dallas Mavericks in a thrilling six-game series. The eventual NBA Champion San Antonio Spurs knocked off the Suns 4-1 in the Western Conference Finals.

Season Review 05-06

RECORD
54-28

A resilient and determined Phoenix Suns team advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the second year in a row after overcoming numerous obstacles.

An unfortunate preseason knee injury to All-Star Amar'e Stoudemire and an overhauled roster had critics dismissing the Suns as a playoff contender, but the run-and-gun Suns won their second consecutive Pacific Division title for the first time in franchise history. Despite returning only three active players from the 2004-05 roster (Steve Nash, Shawn Marion, Leandro Barbosa) and the loss of the NBA's fifth-leading scorer (Stoudemire), Phoenix became the first team in NBA history to lead the league in scoring (108.4), field goal percentage (.479), three-point field goal percentage (.399) and free-throw percentage (.806).

Nash directed an explosive offense that featured seven players who recorded career years in scoring. For his efforts, Nash was awarded his second consecutive NBA MVP award after posting career highs in scoring (18.8), rebounds (4.2), field goal percentage (.512), free throw percentage (franchise-record .921) and minutes played (35.4). Equally impressive was teammate Marion, who enjoyed a career year, posting career highs in scoring (21.8), rebounds (11.8), blocks (1.69), double-doubles (60) and field goal percentage (.525). Perhaps, the biggest surprise was the emergence of newcomer Boris Diaw, who came to Phoenix from Atlanta in the Joe Johnson sign-and-trade deal, and became the second player (Kevin Johnson, 1988-89) in franchise history to be named the NBA's Most Improved Player after averaging 13.3 points, 6.9 rebounds and 6.2 assists.

After locking up the No. 2 seed in the Western Conference playoffs, the Suns became only the eighth team in NBA history to wipe out a 3-1 deficit and defeat the L.A. Lakers in the first round. In yet another grueling seven-game series, Phoenix ousted the L.A. Clippers in the conference semifinals and took a stunning 1-0 lead in the Western Conference Finals with a 121-118 road win in Dallas on May 24. Unfortunately, the win came at a cost. Starting guard Raja Bell suffered a left calf strain late in the game that hampered the team's inspirational leader the rest of the series as the pesky Suns finally bowed out in six games.

On Jan. 6, 2006, America West Arena, the Suns home since 1992-93, was officially renamed the US Airways Center.

FRONT ROW: Video Coordinator Noel Gillespie, Assistant Video Coordinator Jason March, Assistant Athletic Trainer Mike Elliott, Strength Coach/Assistant Trainer Erik Phillips, Athletic Trainer Aaron Nelson, Equipment Managers Jay Gaspar and Rich Howell. MIDDLE ROW: Assistant Coach Phil Weber, Head Coach Mike D'Antoni, Eddie House, Leandro Barbosa, Raja Bell, Shawn Marion, Dijon Thompson, Steve Nash, Andre Barrett, Assistant Coach Alvin Gentry, Assistant Coach Marc Iavaroni, Assistant Coach Dan D'Antoni. BACK ROW: James Jones, Boris Diaw, Pat Burke, Nikoloz Tskitishvili, Amar'e Stoudemire, Kurt Thomas, Brian Grant, Tim Thomas.

Season Review 06-07

61-21

After making back-to-back trips to the Western Conference Finals, expectations for the 2006-07 Phoenix Suns were incredibly high, and the team did little to disappoint.

The Suns captured their third consecutive Pacific Division title (sixth in club history) and finished with the NBA's second-best record (61-21), marking the third 60-win season in franchise history (second since 2004). The season included two of the team's longest win streaks in franchise history (17, 15). In doing so, Phoenix became just the fifth team in NBA history to post two separate win streaks of 14 or more in a single season and the first team since the 1999-2000 Los Angeles Lakers.

Led by reigning two-time NBA MVP Steve Nash, who posted career highs in assists, field goal percentage and three-point field goal percentage, the Suns led the NBA in points per game, field goal percentage, free-throw percentage and three-point percentage for the second consecutive year. Phoenix clearly benefited from the healthy return of Amar'e Stoudemire, who joined Nash as a selection on the All-NBA First Team. Nash, Stoudemire and Shawn Marion represented the club at the 2007 NBA All-Star Game in Las Vegas, marking only the third time in franchise history the club has sent a trio of players to the All-Star Game. Leandro Barbosa became just the fourth player in team history to be named the NBA's Sixth Man of the Year after averaging a career-high 18.1 points. Raja Bell was named to the All-NBA Defensive First Team and his career-high 205 three-pointers made tied him with Gilbert Arenas for the league lead.

The Suns entered the postseason with the No. 2 seed in the Western Conference and easily dispatched Kobe Bryant and the Los Angeles Lakers in five games in a rematch of the 2006 first-round playoff series. With the top-seeded Dallas Mavericks getting eliminated in the first round of the playoffs against the Golden State Warriors, Phoenix was ensured of having home-court advantage throughout the remainder of the playoffs, but a difficult Western Conference Semifinals series against the San Antonio Spurs was looming. Phoenix earned a split in the first four games of the series, but the Suns were hamstrung by the controversial one-game suspensions of Stoudemire and Boris Diaw for Game 5 in Phoenix. They were suspended after leaving "the immediate vicinity of their bench" and responding to Robert Horry's hard foul on Nash with 18 seconds remaining in the fourth period of the Suns' 104-98 win over the Spurs in Game 4. A shorthanded Suns team nearly defeated the Spurs in Game 5 (88-85), but a late fourth-quarter rally fell just short in Game 6 in Alamo City. It marked the third time in the last five seasons the Spurs ended the Suns season and went on to win the NBA championship.

Season Review 07-08

55-27

The 2007-08 Phoenix Suns continued an era of unprecedented success in the franchise's history. Despite undergoing a 7-foot-1, 321-pound midseason makeover with the addition of four-time NBA Champion Shaquille O'Neal, the Suns won 55 games to complete the winningest four-season stretch in team history with 232 victories from 2004-05 to 2007-08.

With the offseason announcement of five-time NBA Champion Steve Kerr as the team's President of Basketball Operations and General Manager, and the free-agent signing of seven-time All-Star Grant Hill, the Suns won at least 54 games for the franchise-record fourth consecutive season. Phoenix was once again among the league's scoring leaders, averaging more than 110 points for the third time in the last four seasons.

The Suns were led by the All-Star tandem of Steve Nash and Amar'e Stoudemire, who earned their sixth and third berths, respectively. Among the league's greatest passers, Nash finished second in the NBA in assists (11.1) and continued to establish himself as one of the game's best shooters, setting a career-high in three-pointers (179, 6th-NBA) for the second-straight season and shooting a career-high three-point percentage (.470, 2nd-NBA). Stoudemire became the first NBA player since Tim Duncan in 2001-02 to average 25 points (team-high 25.2, 5th-NBA), nine rebounds (team-best 9.1, 19th-NBA) and two blocks (career-high and team-best 2.06, 6th-NBA).

The Suns rocked the NBA on Feb. 6, 2008, when they acquired 14-time All-Star O'Neal in exchange for Shawn Marion and Marcus Banks. Shaq made his Suns debut on Feb. 20 at US Airways Center in a nationally-televised tilt against the L.A. Lakers. The doubters grew loud after Phoenix went 3-6 in its first nine games with The Big Cactus, but the trade energized the Suns and the city of Phoenix as the club won 15 of its final 20 games to finish tied for the fourth-best record in the most competitive Western Conference in NBA history. Unfortunately, because of tiebreakers, Phoenix wound up with the West's sixth playoff seed without homecourt advantage and drew a first-round matchup with the San Antonio Spurs. The Suns came out on the wrong side of one of the most exciting games in NBA playoff history as the Spurs made two improbable last-second three-pointers in Game 1 of the series, one to send the game into overtime, one to force-double overtime. Phoenix won Game 3 in decisive fashion but the Spurs went on to win the series, 4-1, and eliminate the Suns from the playoffs for the third time in the last four seasons.

Season Review 08-09

46-36

The Phoenix Suns missed the playoffs for the first time since 2003 despite winning 46 games, the second-most victories for a non-playoff team in the 25-year history of the NBA's 16-team playoff format. Phoenix had the league's 13th-best record in 2008-09.

An offseason coaching change brought in former Trail Blazers great Terry Porter, but inconsistency plagued the club's first half. Despite a Dec. 10 trade that resulted in the acquisition of scorer Jason Richardson, Jared Dudley and a 2010 second-round draft pick from Charlotte for Raja Bell, Boris Diaw and Sean Singletary, a Suns team with high expectations limped to the All-Star break losing 10 of 16 games. Porter was dismissed on Feb. 16 after a 28-23 first half and replaced by assistant Alvin Gentry, a member of the Suns' coaching staff since 2004.

An energized Suns team exploded out of the gates following the All-Star break, registering a 140-100 win over the L.A. Clippers, the largest margin of victory following a coaching change in NBA history. The scorching Suns tallied 140 or more points in each of their first three games under Gentry, the first such scoring streak in team history, and the first time the league had seen such prolific scoring since 1990-91. Just when it seemed like Phoenix was poised for a run through the Western Conference, leading scorer Amar'e Stoudemire underwent season-ending surgery to repair a detached retina in his right eye on Feb. 20, an injury that occurred in the team's second game following the break.

Despite the injury to Stoudemire and games missed by both Steve Nash and Leandro Barbosa due to injury, the Suns went 18-13 during Gentry's interim tenure. Phoenix won 12 of its final 17 games under Gentry, a stretch which included both the club's longest overall win streak (six games) and longest home win streak (nine games). A great deal of the team's success and the resulting fan excitement stemmed from its return to its high-scoring roots, and in 2008-09 Phoenix led the league in scoring for the fourth time in the last five seasons. The Suns removed the interim tag from Gentry's title following the season on May 9.

For the third time, the Suns and the city of Phoenix hosted the NBA All-Star Game. The weekend festivities took over US Airways Center from Feb. 13-15 along with the league's biggest stage and brightest stars, including Suns Stoudemire (voted a starter for the first time in his career) and Shaquille O'Neal, who was named the game's co-MVP with Kobe Bryant. For the season, Shaq averaged 17.8 points and led the league in field goal percentage for the NBA-record 10th time and earned All-NBA Third Team honors. O'Neal was dealt to the Cleveland Cavaliers in a three-player trade on June 25. Phoenix acquired Ben Wallace and Sasha Pavlovic, who each later agreed to buyouts.

54-28

A 2009-10 season that began with tempered expectations and a slew of vocal doubters saw the up-start Phoenix Suns make believers out of fans and pundits alike, and come within two victories of an NBA Finals berth. The club made its third Western Conference Finals appearance in six seasons after a 54-win regular season despite being picked by many to miss the playoffs entirely.

Behind Alvin Gentry in his first full season as the club's head coach, Phoenix opened the season with a franchise-record tying and NBA-best 14-3 record, earning the first of two NBA Western Conference Coach of the Month honors for Gentry, who finished fifth in league Coach of the Year voting. Despite inconsistencies in December and January that saw the club struggle to a 14-18 mark, the quick start was a source of confidence for the Suns, who rediscovered their swagger and won 23 of 29 games after the All-Star break, best of any West team. That record included a 12-2 mark in the month of March when Gentry won his second monthly honor.

The Suns were once again led by All-NBA Second Team teammates Steve Nash and Amar'e Stoudemire, who were both voted All-Star starters. Nash posted the greatest statistical season for a point guard over the age of 35 in league history and led the NBA in assists for the fourth time in six seasons since re-joining the Suns. But it was not just the stars who led Phoenix. Suns fans were treated to a deeper and more defensive-minded club. Planet Orange witnessed the development of a consistently productive 10-man rotation and the coming-of-age of the team's 2008 draft class, as Robin Lopez and Goran Dragic each became key contributors. The Suns led the league in scoring for the fifth time in six seasons and shot a franchise-record 41.2 percent from three-point range, the second-highest mark in NBA history.

After dropping their playoff opener against the Trail Blazers, Phoenix went on to win eight of its next nine postseason contests, defeating Portland 4-2 in the opening round to set up a semifinal grudge match with the rival San Antonio Spurs. Though the doubters returned, not only did the Suns erase a decade of playoff heartbreaks against the Spurs, they did so with a sweep of San Antonio that included an 18-point comeback in Game 3 and a series-clinching Game 4 victory in the Alamo City.

That set up a clash of Pacific Division foes in the conference finals and the Suns and Lakers split the series' first four games. But, in Game 5, Ron Artest's improbable rebound and put-back of a Kobe Bryant airball as time expired won that pivotal contest for the Lakers and eventually the series, 4-2.

1975-76 (Suns 42-40 Regular Season)

Beginning with the 1974-75 season, the league was divided into the four divisions and two conferences we know today. Five teams from each conference advanced to the playoffs. The winningest three teams received a bye in the first-round, the remaining two teams played in a best-of-five first-round series. The best-of-seven semifinals pitted the first-place team against the winner of the first-round series and the second and third-place teams against each other, with the winners advancing to the conference finals and the NBA Finals.

This procedure changed slightly prior to the start of the 1976-77 season when additional teams were added to the league. At that time, six teams advanced to the playoffs and each of the division winners received a bye to the semifinals. Again, the first-round of the playoffs was a best-of-five series and each of the three following series were best-of-seven.

Community Outreach

NBA Cares

Community outreach is integral to the Phoenix Suns mission. Last year, the Suns:

- Renovated a reading and learning center
- Refurbished two basketball courts
- Donated over 40,000 pounds of food to local agenices to feed the hungry
- Provided holiday gifts to children at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center
- Totaled over 8,000 volunteer hours throughout the Valley to assist non-profits
- Over 18,000 kids play basketball through the Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury basketball program

EDUCATION

Live, Learn and Play Projects

The cornerstone of the Suns' projects is based off the principles of: building places to live, creating places to pla and renovating places to learn. Throughout the season, the Suns touch thousands of people through these projects. In addition, Suns players and The Gorilla support these programs through various apperances at each. Other components of the program include book drives, essay contests, and television and radio public service announcements.

Suns/Diamondbacks Education Academy

The problem of high school dropouts is startling. In 2009-10, 5.1% of Arizona's high school students dropped out, including 4,500 dropouts from the Phoenix Union High School District alone...one of the highest dropout rates in the country.

The Suns are proud to be part of a unique solution addressing the dropout problem. In partnership with Communities in Schools of Arizona, the Suns/Diamondbacks Education Academy provides educational opportunities to high-risk students ages 16-21 who have out-aged high school. The academy does so by addressing their needs through individualized programs that are motivational and are offered at times that meet their schedules. Although PUHSD, the largest district in the Valley, is the educational partner in this project, students from throughout metro Phoenix are eligible to attend the Academy. Throughout the year, Suns and Diamondbacks employees visit the school to encourage students and reward their accomplishments.

Quest for Quality

The Suns donate thousands of complimentary tickets to schools and charity organizations each season. Through the Quest for Quality program, sponsored by APS, Arizona schools apply for an allotment of tickets to be used as student rewards for exemplary behavior and achievement. Two students from each school are selected to have his/her picture taken with a Suns player on the court at halftime, and every student receives a certificate of achievement.

COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY

Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury Youth Basketball Leagues

Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury Youth Basketball Leagues provide kids with the opportunity to learn what it takes to win... both on and off the court. Kids of all skill levels can participate in leagues that run throughout the year and even have a chance to scrimmage in front of the home crowd at US Airways Center. Special visits by Suns and Mercury players, coaches and alumni provide added motivation for the kids. By showing kids that a winning attitude goes a long way, Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury provides boys and girls ages 6-18 a chance to learn the important lessons of life, the value of a good education, good sportsmanship and giving back to the community. The program is sponsored by Blue Cross Blue Shield of Arizona, Dick's Sporting Goods and Gatorade.

Suns Nite Hoops

Suns Nite Hoops is an educational, job placement and recreational program for young adults. This free organized basketball league offers men ages 18-25 a positive alternative to drugs, gangs and violence. Though the hoops are the big draw, participants are required to attend a 45-minute educational workshop prior to each game. There they meet with professional facilitators to discuss important issues such as improving their education and learning personal development skills. Suns Nite Hoops also provides two case managers who work one-on-one with each participant as they work toward specific, personal goals. The success of the program has helped young men change their lives and become productive members of the community.

Wheelchair Suns Basketball

The Arizona Spinal Cord Injury Association, the Paralyzed Veterans Association and the Suns, the Wheelchair Suns compete in the National Wheelchair Basketball Association. The team has been nationally-ranked in the past and also assist in the community. For younger students, the team presents, "It's OK To Be Different," a look at what makes us unique. For high school students, the team presents a safe driving campaign that includes public service announcements and school assemblies. These sessions include a personal story from a team member who tells how he was injured in a car accident and what could be done to prevent such accidents.

Suns Alumni Summer Youth Basketball Camps

This summer the Phoenix Suns will host more than 1,500 Valley youth as they head to Grand Canyon University to participate in the Suns Alumni Summer Youth Basketball Camps. Suns legends Connie Hawkins, Mark West, John Shumate, Alvan Adams, Tim Kempton and Suns broadcaster Tom Leander manage the camps. With assistance from the Parks and Recreation Department of the City of Phoenix, the Suns invite kids ages 6-15 living in urban areas to attend the daily activities. The free camps include basketball drills and games, special appearances and presentations, and each child leaves with a memento of their day with the Suns.

Community Appearances

Meeting a Phoenix Suns player can be a significant experience in the life of a child... or any fan! Suns players, coaches and alumni make appearances year-round, allowing the Suns to support hundreds of community organizations in a unique way. Appearances at schools, hospitals, parks, stores, basketball camps and community events help many other organizations raise funds and build community awareness for their cause.

And the ever-entertaining Gorilla, now a member of the Mascot Hall of Fame, makes friends throughout the state on more than 250 community appearances annually. Many times, he is joined by the Phoenix Suns Entertainment Team, which includes Suns dancers, Verve Sol Patrol and the Suns Toyota Tundra.

Donations

The Phoenix Suns support hundreds of non-profit and educational organizations each year with donations of cash, merchandise, and autographed items. Thanks to Phoenix Suns players who purchase blocks of tickets to each game, many kids have the chance to see a Suns game live for the very first time. And through Suns Charity Seats, season ticket holders may donate unused seats, which are then donated to non-profit organizations that assist the needs of children.

Through the APS Powers Players program, the Suns renovate old basketball courts. A dedication ceremony features player and alumni clinics for kids who will use the court. In the past five years, the Suns have renovated more than 50 courts statewide.

Volunteer Efforts

As a community leader, the Phoenix Suns franchise takes the position of role model very seriously. That's why we are a major contributor to the United Way and the United Way Day of Caring. In addition, Phoenix Suns employees serve on numerous community boards and committees, leading a wide variety of charitable efforts throughout the community and state.

Environmental Leaders

Suns Legacy Partners is committed to becoming conscious and educated about sustainable and environmentally friendly initiatives in order to institute positive change within our organization. Furthermore, by implementing these practices, we hope that others will conform to also make changes for the better of the environment.

PHOENIX SUNS CHARITIES

Phoenix Suns Charities uses the unique resources of the Suns organization to raise funds that will address the needs of children and families in Arizona. Since its creation in 1989, the foundation has raised over $10 million through special events, sponsor programs and sports memorabilia auctions.

Annually, Suns Charities grants serve over 120 non-profit organizations that focus on children and youth in the areas of education, health and human services, the arts, as well as sports, recreation and rehabilitation. In 2008, Suns Charities grants topped the one million dollar mark for the first time. The foundation also sponsors the SunStudent Scholarship Program, which awards $35,000 in scholarships to Arizona High School seniors who have made a significant commitment to community service. In this way, Phoenix Suns Charities is helping to nurture the next generation of community volunteers.

Investing in the community is important to the Phoenix Suns. In fact, the combined value of Suns grants, donations, scholarships, merchandise, tickets and memorabilia now exceeds $1 million annually.

U·S Airways Center

From its planning inception in 1988 and eventual opening in June of 1992, US Airways Center (formerly America West Arena, as of January 6, 2006) was the benchmark for other cities and other sports facilities. Its design boasted innovations that had not been seen in arenas of its day including multi-story suite levels, attached premium parking facilities, and integrated team practice facility. Both public and private critics saw US Airways Center as a catalytic project capable of stimulating urban growth.

In its first full year of operation, the arena received every award a new venue of its kind was afforded, including Best New Concert Venue by Performance Magazine and Best NBA Facility by acclaim of those who know best, the players themselves.

Through the course of the 90's, new facilities around the country followed the example of US Airways Center and new projects sprung up in nearly all the major western state metropolitan areas: Denver, Portland, Seattle, Salt Lake City and in 1999, Los Angeles and Dallas with dramatic new STAPLES Center and American Airlines Center. Technology changed, entertainment options proliferated and the city's emerging new downtown continued to evolve in positive ways.

The US Airways Center completed a major $70 million expansion and improvement project in 2004. Gone is the block exterior, replaced with soaring glass walls. The outdoor ticket office is now enclosed inside the new 14,000 square foot Casino Arizona Pavilion, serving as a grand entrance highlighted by a 12 x 20 foot video wall. On the east side, the Bud Light Paseo is a flexible outdoor entertainment venue covered by a football field-length canopy featuring state-of-the-art sound and video projection systems, as well as the stylish Bud Light bar area and facilities that double as television studio facilities for Suns telecasts and a performance stage for music events. Other improvements include new technology installed in the bowl including a 900-foot LED ribbon, a center-hung scoreboard with HDTV screens, a new sound system, a new Courtside Club, Toyota Club and Verve Energy Lounge nightclub, and the APS Gorilla Greenhouse, a 7,000 square foot family friendly active home to the Phoenix Suns Gorilla. At street level the US Airways Center now features a Starbucks, an expanded Team Shop and the Toyota Club.
